Student Life

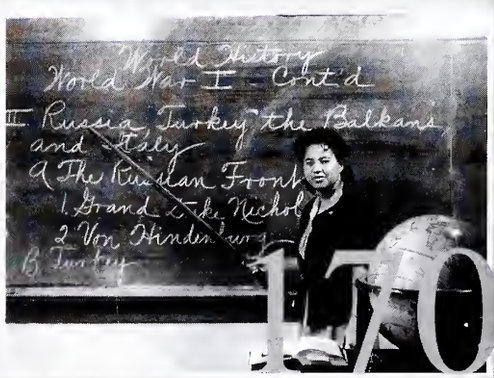

These ladies of Cunningham Hall are showing that work and play do go together. Now more than ever, student life encompasses the physical, social, and spiritual facets of the Oakwood experience.

65

Classes

Oberserve the uniforms of these former Oakwoodities. Though the dress and faces have changed over the years, the students of Oakwood are still a unified student body.

170

Academia

Whether in the fields of science, business, or the arts; Oakwood always strives for excellence in education while preparing students for eternity.

192

Sports

These ladies of Oakwood are geared up for a rousing game of volleyball. With activities such as flag football, basketball, softball, and soccer, Oakwood students never run out of ways to release some energy.

206

Organizations

With organizations like SIFE, Science Club, the Pre-law Club, and the vast number of choirs on campus, students are given the opportunity to unite under common interests and skills.

Colossial Moments

Inside is a glance of Oakwood through the years. These pages will show that although the times have changed, some things will remain the same.

PRESIDENTS'

Welcome to Acorn 2000, the special millennial edition of the Oakwood College yearbook. As we are on the verge of a new millenium, so we are also on the verge of becoming a new Oakwood. This is the time of:

-Dynamic, talented, ethnically diverse students from all over the world.
-Strategic goals motivating us to prepare for the future and for the coming of the Lord.
-Refocusing of programs and courses to equip students for new challenges.
-Adapting the campus to more fully utilize technology as a means to facilitate learning.
-Integration of faith and learning in the classroom to create leaders for now and for eternity.

-Positioning Oakwood as a center of research and training.
-Moving toward university status

All this and more are creating a new spirit and a new beginning at Oakwood. From the new Adventist Blvd. a visitor can look out and see the many directions Oakwood is planning to grow–the much- needed Business and Technology Complex and the anticipated Health and Wellness Center.

For those of us who study here, live here, and love Oakwood, we can see much more. We can see Oakwood living up to the ideal of God's plan for this institution.

We can see what we have done, but also what needs to be done. We are committed to providing the best of scholarship, teaching, and support.

Undergirding every aspect of the Oakwood program is a firm belief in God's guidance in the past and His sure providence for the future. God has led and will continue to lead this great institution. And all of us-- students, faculty, and administrators-- have the privilege of being a part of this powerful circle of Providence.

Join with us in developing an Oakwood that reaches the lofty vision established by our pioneers, and especially the motivating force in our founding, Ellen G. White. The vision was simple that Oakwood would be a Spirit-led educational institution for the training of Black people to take their place in a new society.

We continue this tradition of excellence. We continue this tradition of great vision. We continue this tradition of spiritual leadership as we invite you to join us–students, graduates, friends–in reaching new heights of service in learning until we have the privilege of meeting Christ at His promised coming.

Delbert W. Baker, Ph. D.

MESSAGES

God truly revealed Himself as a friend to me this year. Before stepping into this office, I acknowledged my Saviour as a considerate provider, but I didn't truly believe that He loved me. I had not yet encountered His true nature. He was persistent, though. He wanted me. He pursued me with sweet promises. He sang hymns to me. He rehearsed His past works for me. He showed kindness to me. At the end of it all, I was left totally wooed by my sweet Jesus! He left me breathing the following prayer:

"Would that my life be as a rose,
Spreading its fragrance afar;
Leading one's thoughts from things of this earth,to beauty of gates ajar.
Where Jesus the Rose of Sharon, is waiting in Heaven above,
To welcome His earthly children,
Into His arms of love."

Enough about me . . .

"Make it happen!" This was the phrase coined as our motivational theme this year. Just as God worked in my life, He was given the opportunity to work on every student present. I was blessed with a dynamic Executive Committee and a wonderful body of Senators. It is because of them that I can look back and say, "Mission accomplished!"

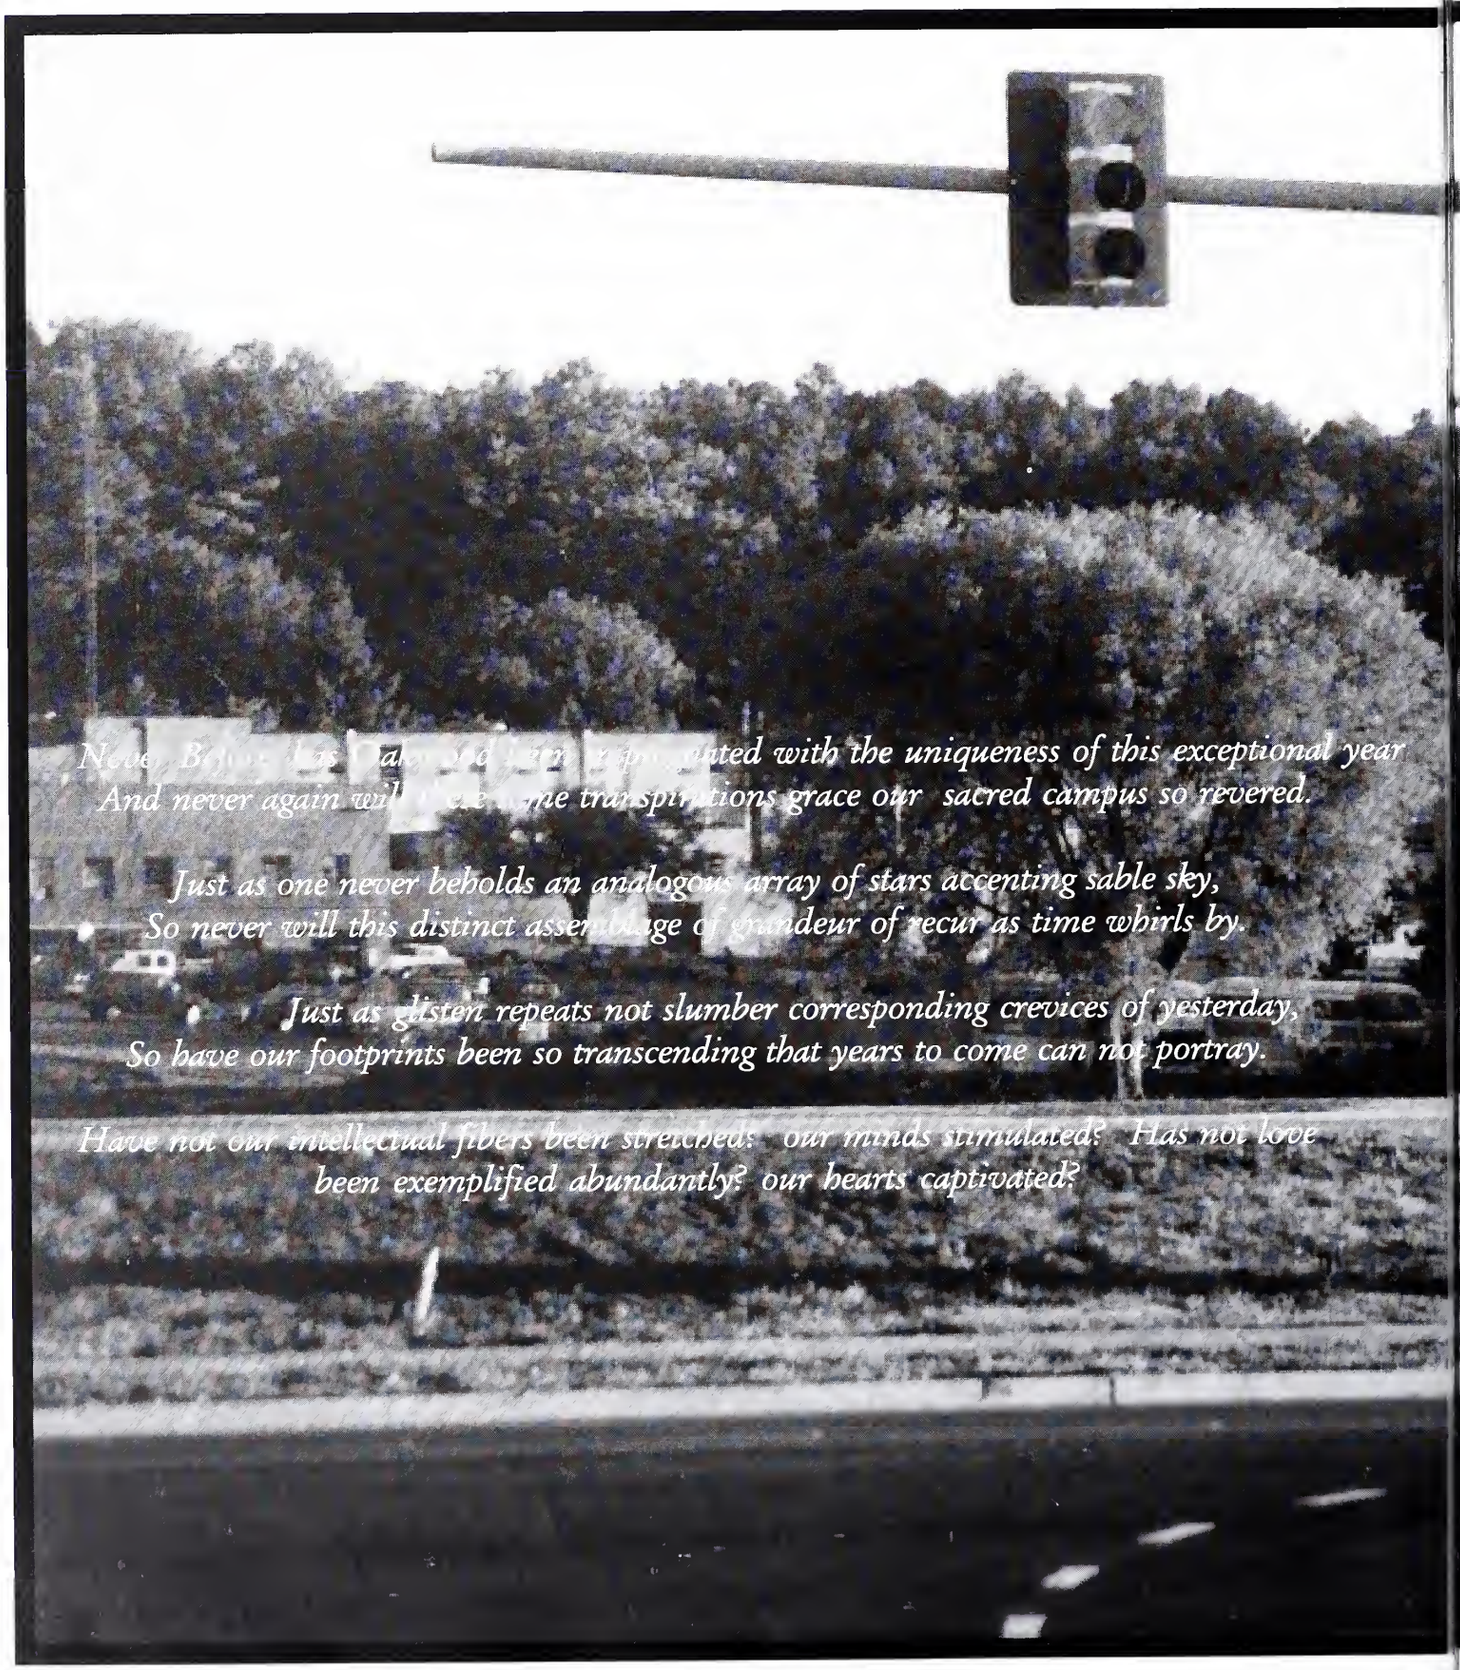

Our goal was to create a focus on service and sacrifice in hopes of fostering a oneness in the student body and a desire to make this year on earth our best!

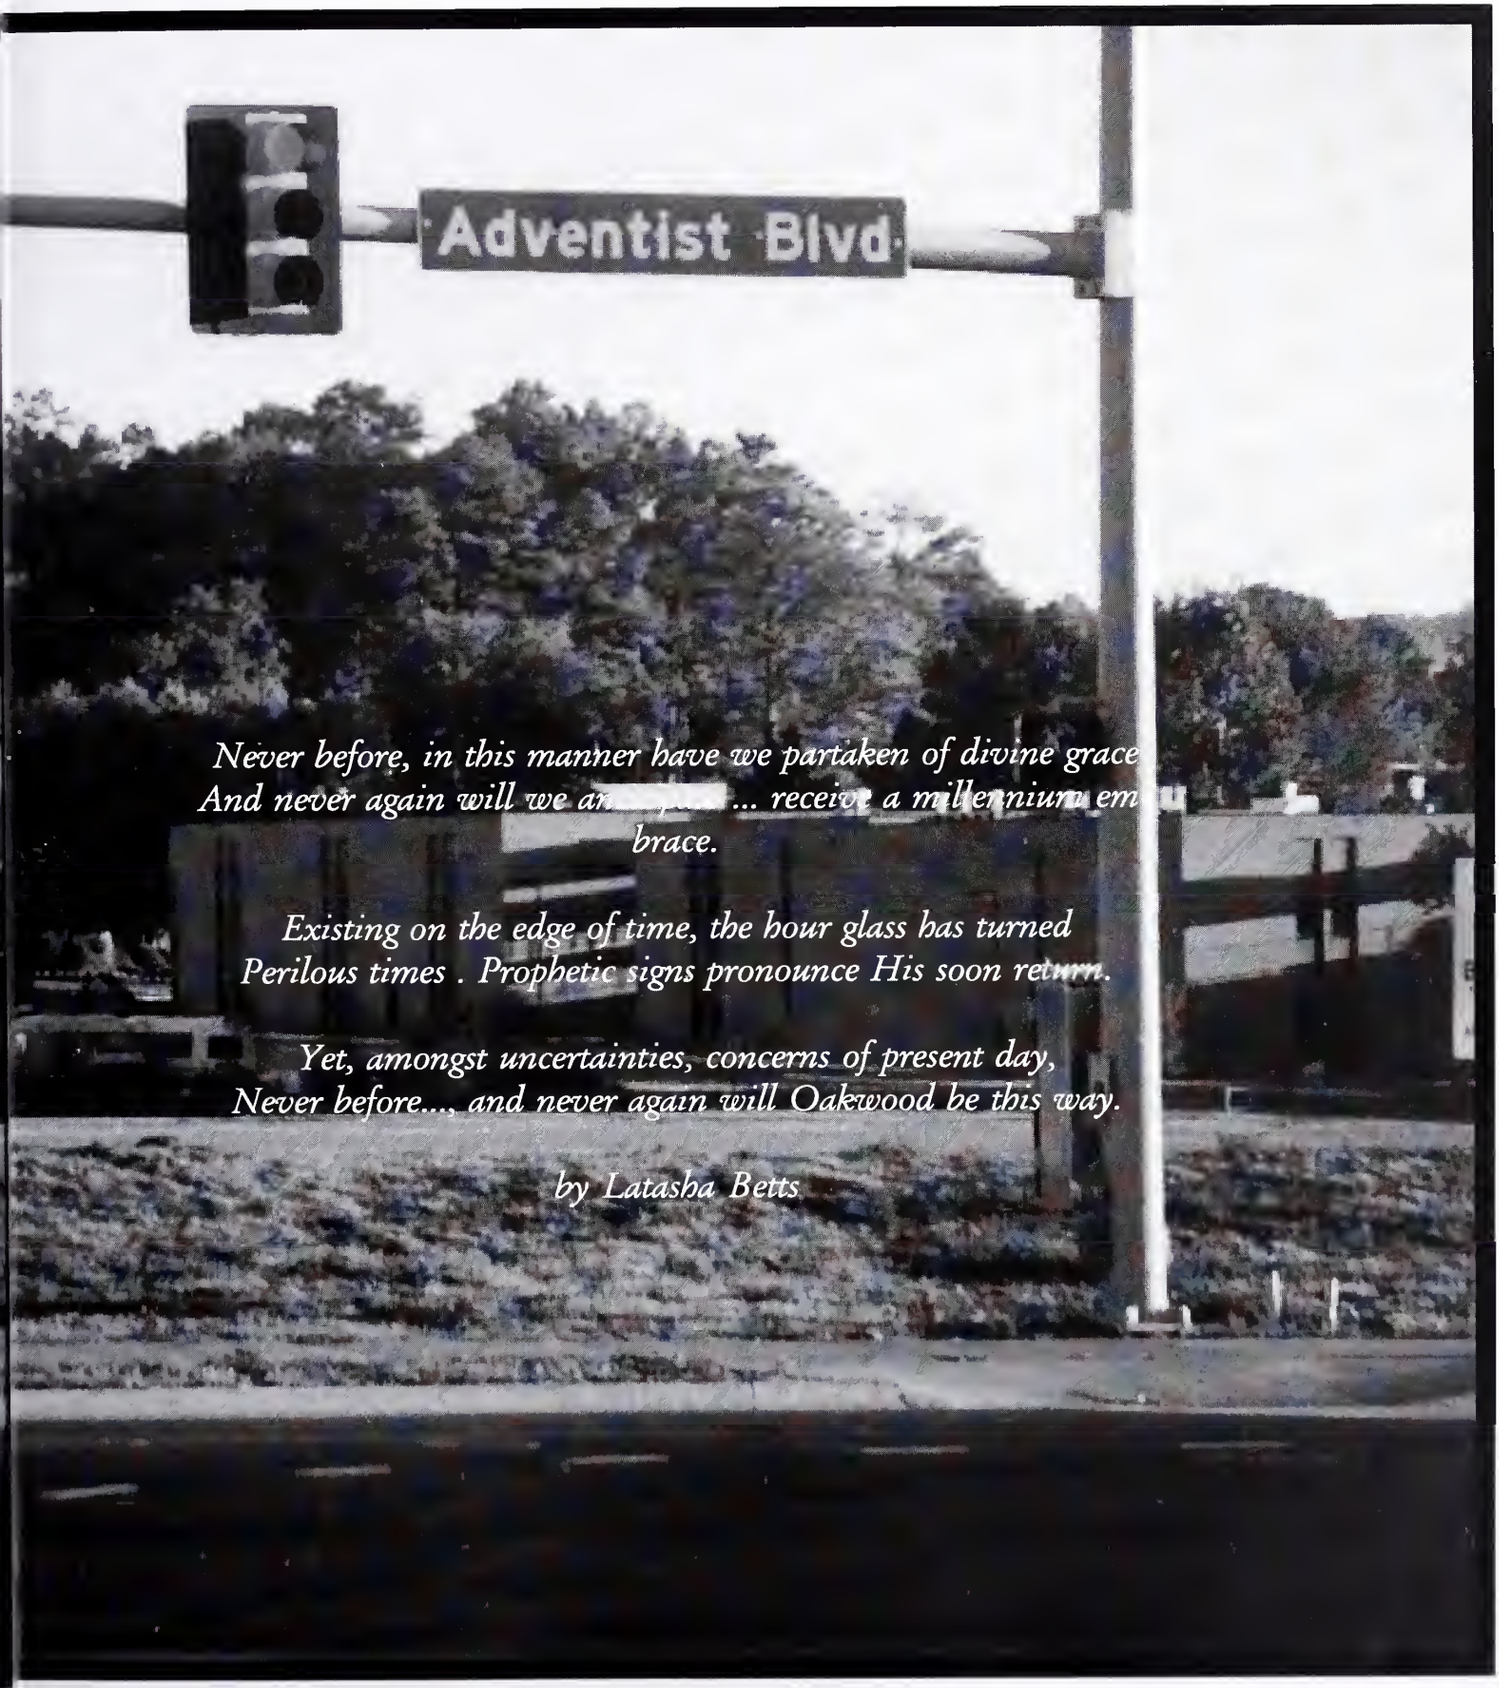

I sincerely appreciate the support that our sponsors have provided. Kesslyn Brade, Dr. Newborn, and Dr. Mckenzie were Godsends. They stood by us and counseled us when our vision was slightly blurred.

It has been a blessing to serve you. It has been a privilege to be used. I look forward to looking into your eyes in the kingdom . . . I long for Jesus to come.

In anticipation,

Cynthia Gordon
USM President

Never Before has Oak Grove been confronted with the uniqueness of this exceptional year
And never again will there come transpirations grace our sacred campus so revered.
Just as one never beholds an analogous array of stars accenting sable sky,
So never will this distinct assemblage of grandeur of recur as time whirls by.
Just as glisten repeats not slumber corresponding crevices of yesterday,
So have our footprints been so transcending that years to come can not portray.
Have not our intellectual fibers been stretched; our minds stimulated? Has not love been exemplified abundantly? our hearts captivated?

Never before, in this manner have we partaken of divine grace
And never again will we ar... ... receive a millennium em brace.

Existing on the edge of time, the hour glass has turned Perilous times . Prophetic signs pronounce His soon return.

Yet, amongst uncertainties, concerns of present day,
Never before..., and never again will Oakwood be this way.

STUDENT LIFE

As the twenty-first century approaches, student life becomes more and more important than ever before. Whether it be singing praises in AYS, playing flag football on the field during intramurals, studying in the dorm or library, or just relaxing with friends, these elements enhance student life.

While reflecting on this school year, we realize the importance of making the most of our time like never before, because these moments come only once and never again.

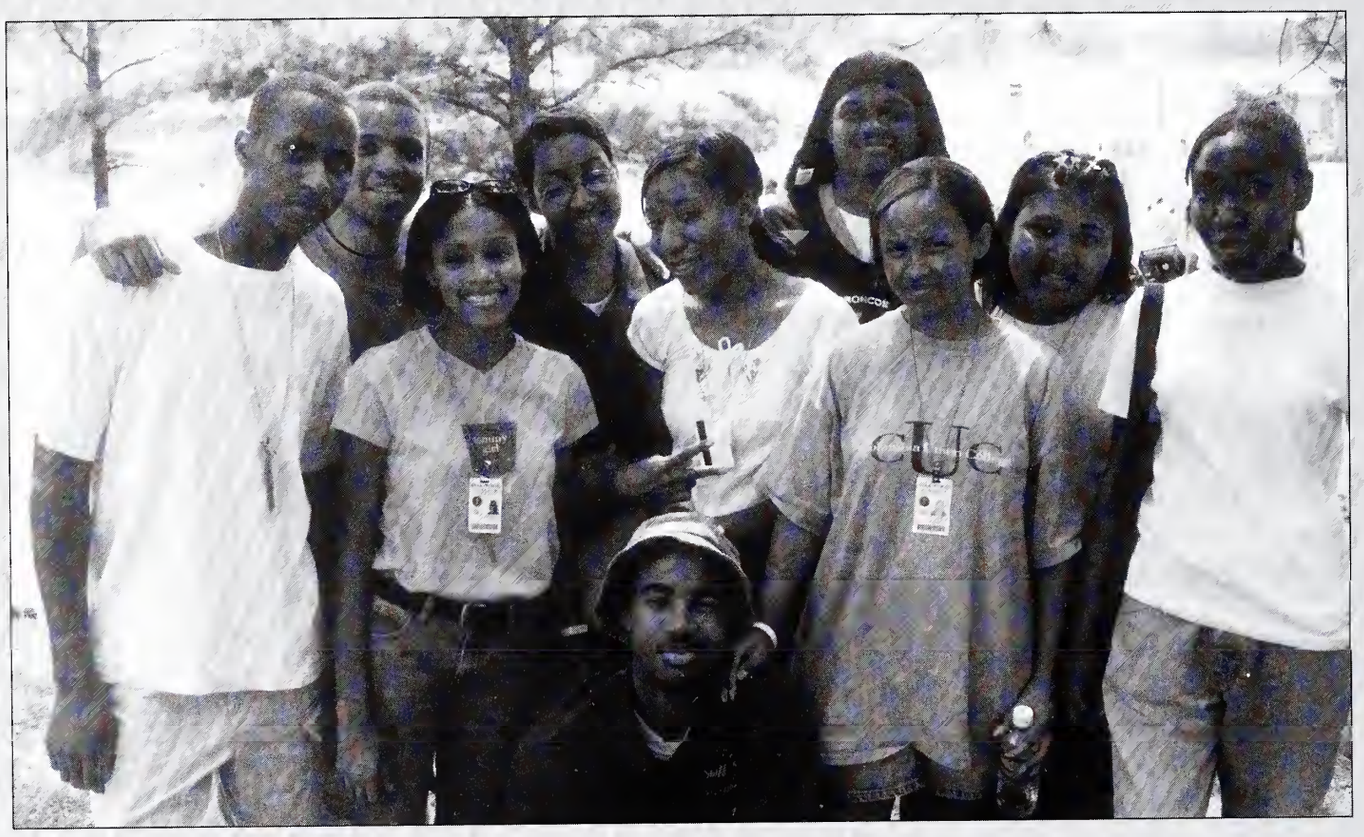

Freshmen Orientation

Freshemen Orientation is where fresmen and new student s get together befroe registration to get to know more about the campus. All who participated had a good time as they engaged in activities which allowed them to laugh together and to gain friends whom they will have forever!

We are just one big, happy family!

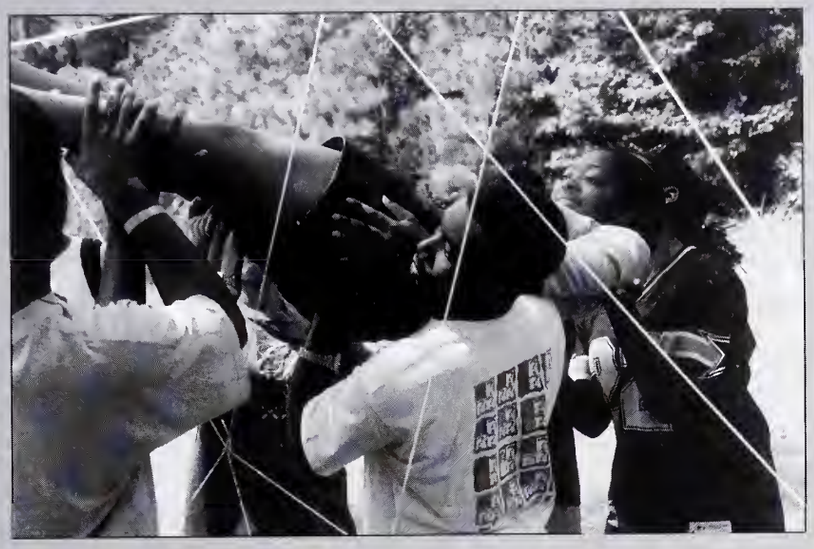

yeah! We made it through Orientation. Now we are full-fledged "Oakwoodites"!

Go on, girl! You can do it!

Freshmen Orientation

COLLEGE DAYS

Every fall Oakwood College hosts its annual College Days. This year College Days was held on October 10-12. High school seniors from many Adventist academys and various schools converge d on the campus. Never before have there been so many possible "Oakwoodites" here to check out the well-known "Oakwood experience." The visitors stayed in the residence halls. During these three days they learned more about what Oakwood has to offer in terms of academic and spiritual growth. Monday night a concert took place at the Oakwood College church. Dynamic Praise, Voices of Triumph, and various groups and soloists participated in this concert. On Tuesday there there was a basketball game held in the Ashby Auditorium. That afternoon all of the guests began their journeys back home with the thought that never again this century will there be another College Days like this.

Mmm . . . a meal from the cafeteria.

"Oooh! Look! Goodies!"

CARRIBEAN FEST

On September 4, 1999, the first Carribean Fest at Oakwood College was sponsered by the United Student Movement. On that night, the amphitheater was inaugurated with a soulful celebration. Some of the highlights for the night included a steel band from Miami that provided Calypso music. Whether it be hoola hooping or bending low under the limbo stick, eating, or just chatting with friends, everyone had a good time.

Dormitories

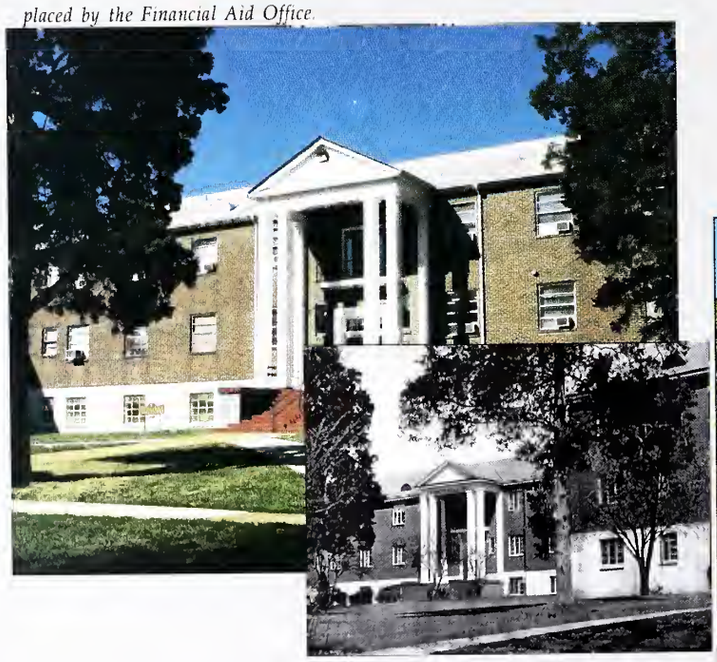

Left: Bessie Carter Hall was built in 1966 to house 275 upperclass women. In the late 1970s the new wing was added to accommodate the growing female population. Currently, the building houses 550 freshmen women.

Below: E. L. Cunningham Hall was built in 1947 for college women. It houses 136 women. The Graphixx Department and the Center for Academic Advancement occupied the ground floor until 1997, when Graphixx was replaced by the Financial Aid Office.

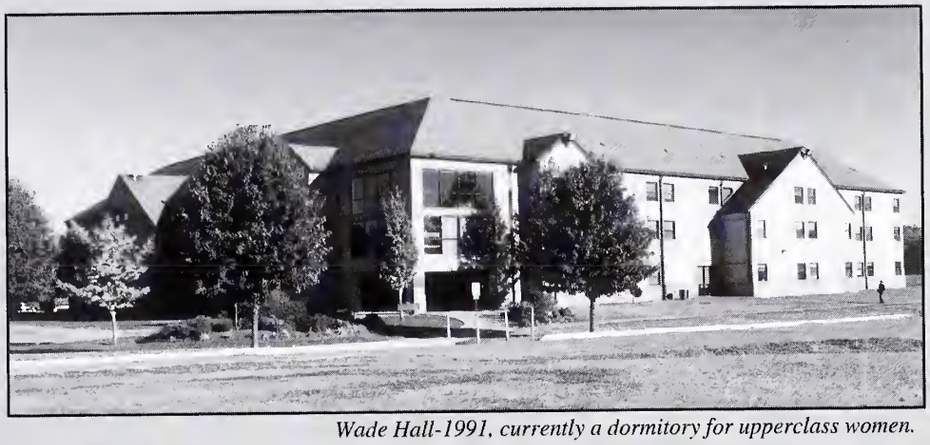

Above: F. L. Peterson Hall was built in 1955 for college freshmen men. It houses 172 students. Peterson Hall became a ladies residence hall for a few years, but is now occupied by freshmen men.

Right: O. B. Edwards Hall was built in 1969 for college freshmen men. It houses 240 students. Edwards Hall now houses upperclass men.

DORM LIFE

Wade Hall-1991, currently a dormitory for upperclass women.

When we leave our homes and head to college, the first place that most of us end up is in the freshmen dormitories. Like never before, we are "on our own." Whether it be Carter Hall (the most popular hangout place for the young and old men of Oakwood College) or Peterson Hall (a popular hangout place for freshmen women), these become our homes away from home.

When we become upperclass women, we move into Wade Hall. This is where brilliant, success- seeking young women reside. The upperclass men move into Edwards Hall; They gain the status of suave and debonaire gentlemen, and the responsibility of having their own private bathrooms.

Dorm life is one of the most exciting aspects of a college student's life. Living in the dorms is truly what we make it. We make friends. We become a family. We grow together and laugh together. Never before have the dorms been filled to capacity, as they are this year. All of the dorms have a few simple rules, such as 10:30 p.m. curfew and attending worship. Sharing, socializing, roommates, wing activities, and NOISE, also surround dorm life.

Every dormitory has facilities to make life easier for the students. There are laundry rooms, which are sometimes called racetracks; if you do not get to the washers and dryers first you lose. In the women's dorms there are beauty parlors. These parlors are also known as the chat rooms because this is where you can receive the up-to-date campus news for the past week. The mens dormitories have barber shops. Each dorm has a chapel where daily worship takes place.

The century is ending, Never again will we experience the joy of living in the Oakwood College dormitories this century. Dorm life is a significant part of the well-known "Oakwood experience."

Carter Hall

"I'm youth , I'm joy, I'm a little bird that has broken out the egg."
James Barrie

Carter Hall, is the home of the young and innocent. Living in Carter Hall, you become friends with just about every person in the dormitory. You learn the true meaning of home a way from home. Next to home this has to be the best place to be; eleven o'clock curfew, wing worship, the late night rendezvous' with the vending machines fully stocked with your favorite treats, the community bathrooms (unless you are on the new wing), disturbing your R.A. in the middle of the night with small problems, hanging out with friends having girl talk sessions, but best of all who can forget the late night phone calls from the dean Farmer or Dean Barton asking to sign in even though you were in your room long before room check. Oh what fun. These beautiful ladies of Carter Hall tend to attract a larger crowd than the Student Center.

Peterson Hall

May I eat in peace please?

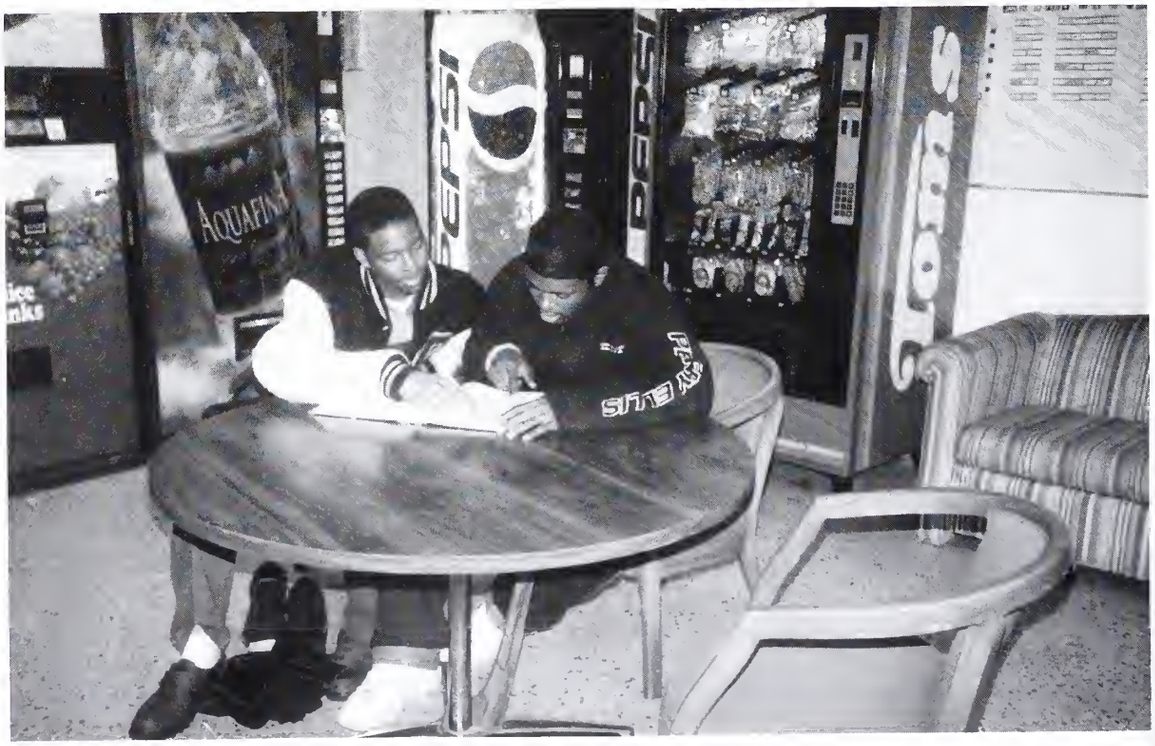

Most students would agree that attending a school like Oakwood College is challenging enough. With keeping abreast with classes, studying, being involved with campus organization and attempting to maintain a social life. The typical college experience is busy enough for anyone. Fortunately the freshmen men of Oakwood College can come home to a dormitroy which is full of friends that are dedicated to one another. Peterson men (a.k.a. MOP) are not only good examples for freshmen but for all men of Oakwood College.

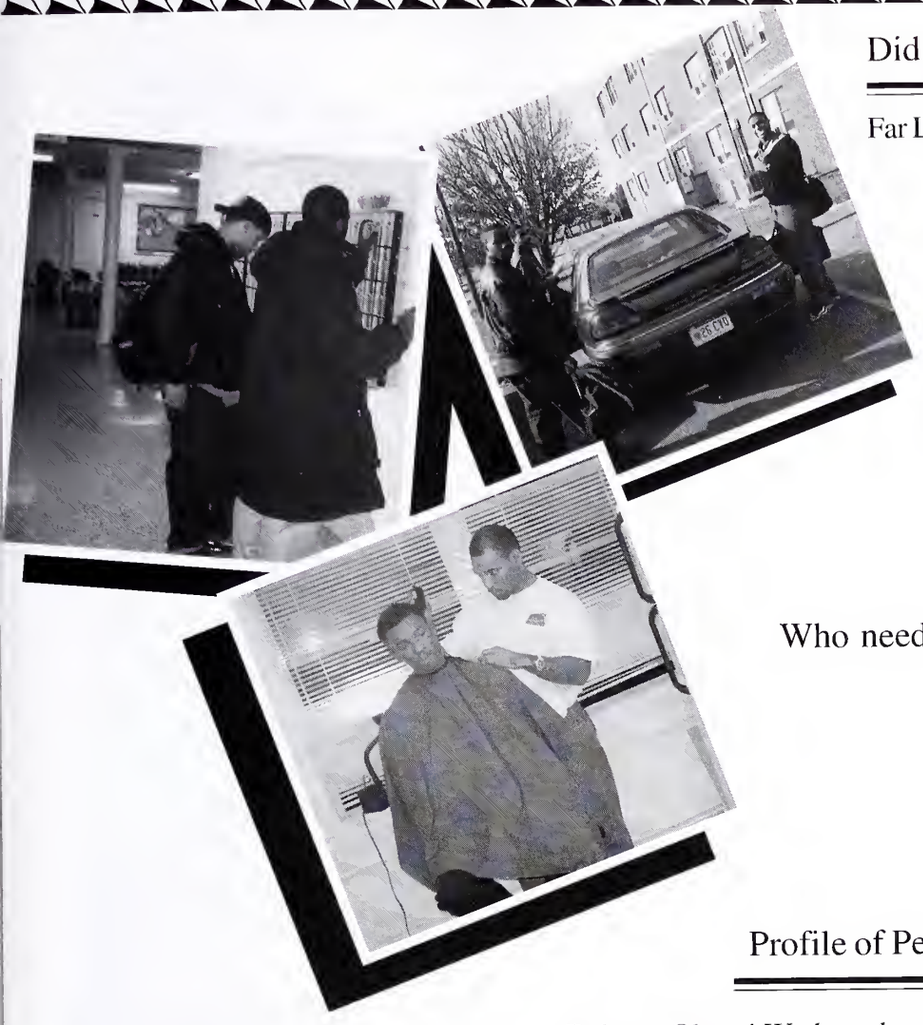

Living in Peterson Hall you learn the basic rules about living on your own. Though every student feels pressured to do well in school and to make a future for themselves, thereis a comfort and joy for these young men to know that there journey starts at PertersonHall. "All for one and one for all "is definitely an appropriate saying for these men.

Wade Hall

"Beauty and wisdom are seldom found together."

Life in Wade Hall is full of energy, excitment, and noise. Life in WadeHall is also about mature women. Living in this dormitory, the women learn a few lesson about sharing space, telephones, bathrooms, and clothes. This invaluable experience of having suitemates is one of the positive aspects of living in Wade Hall.

The mature women of Wade Hall enjoy the responsibility of having a longer curfew than that of the female freshmen dormitory, Carter Hall.

The studious women of Wade Hall may be found in every corner of the dormitory, and at any time of the day or night. Whether they are cramming or trying to stay ahead in their studies, it is easy to miss the hours that the cafeteria is open. Fortunately, delicious Parker burgers and rice are sold nightly, or even better, some generous friends may offer some Ramen noodles, which they will most likey always have.

"Succes is knowing what your values are and living in a way consistent with your values." Danny Cox

Image was everything, or so it seemed. The mancho men of Oakwood College adjust from the freshmen dormitory to Edwards Hall with ease. This dormitory provides greater independence and comfort than that of Peterson Hall. Because of their maturity, the men of Edwards Hall enjoy a later curfew and more lenient R A's.

Edwards is relatively far from the rest of the campus, but near to the upperclassmen ladies' dormitory, Wade Hall;

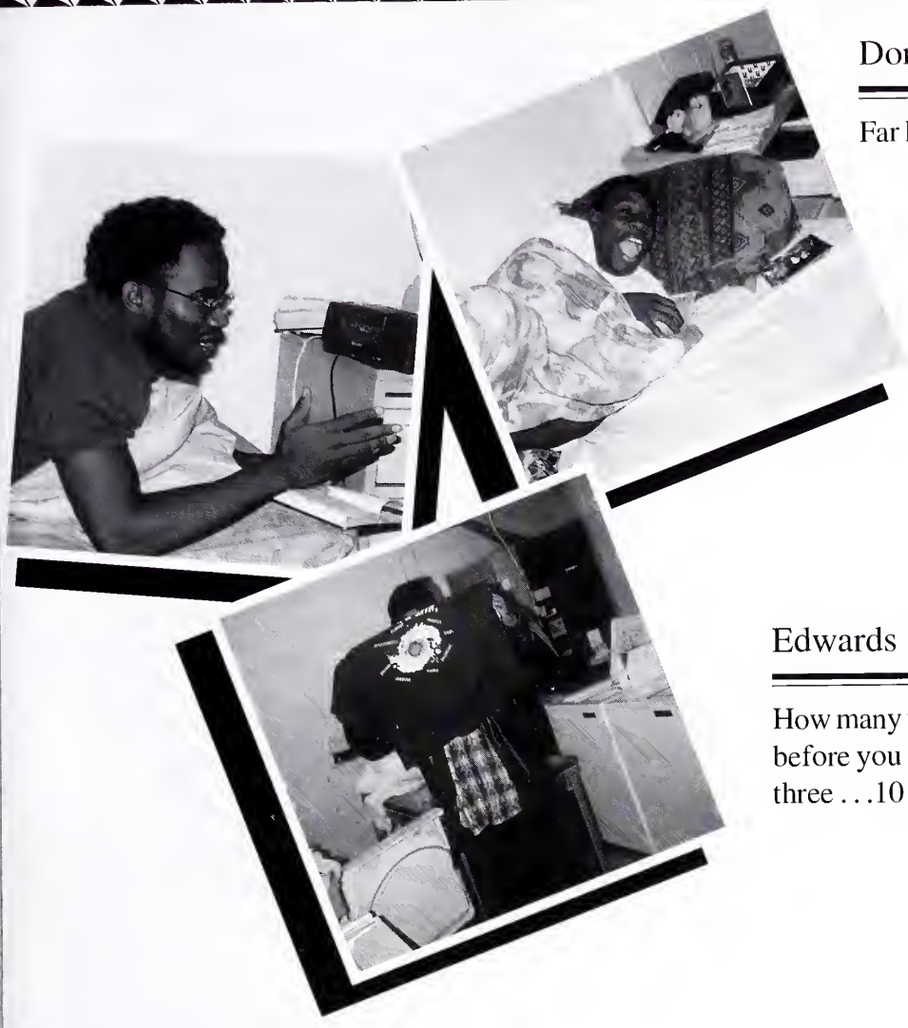

Of course, the men enjoy that The everday events at Edwards Hal include chapel and occassional dormitory activities. The most popular activity that takes place every year is the waterfight in the courtyard.

Favor is deceitful, and beauty vain: but a woman that ffeareeth the Lord, she shall be praised." Prov. 31:30"

The ladies of Cunningham Hall are truely ladies of beauty and charm. They enjoy the closesness and fellowship that is definatley unique and special. Yes, the rooms are small, but the there is much love. The women enjoy the laid back times of Carter combined with the studious sophistication of Wade. They are ladies from different countries and states, they have different goals, and aspirations; however, they share one common bond- they are Ladies of Cunningham.

"Yes! I'm almost on my own." shouted the men and women of the annex.

Living in the annex requires self -discipline because supervison has been decreased to a minimum. By living in the annex you truly learn about cooperation. You are forced to share a house with up to six other students. This means you must share one phone, one washer and dryer, a small number of bathrooms and best of all you share the experience of almost living off campus.

"Who has lost his freedom has nothing else to lose." German proverb.

I'm free!
I'm on my own now and loving it. Off campus students enjoy the freedom of no curfews, no RA's, no signing in at the front desk, no midnight room checks, no emergency fire drills and best of all no NOISE! Although the off campus students are free of the "perks" of living in the dormitory, they are focused, responsible, mature, adult students.

Is the cafeteria food gourmet, or what?

The cafeteria at Oakwood College is best known as for being a social gathering place. The food in the cafeteria is catered by Marriot Corporation. Marriot provides food service to many colleges and universities in Huntsville, but at Oakwood College the menu is unique in that it is all vegetarian. The cafe has a friendly staff, sublime hospitality, and best of all, gourmet meals. Oakwood College students always enjoy visiting the cafeteria.

When you enter the cafeteria, the first person to greet you will be Mrs. Shand, aka Mama Shand.Mama Shand, a well-loved living legend of the cafeteria, brightens the place with her cheerful attitude.

As you proceed you will immediately recognize the "rowdy side" and the "not so rowdy side" of the cafeteria.

This "social gathering place" is where you can receive annoucements, share study notes, join in on singalongs, send joy notes, update your gossip, check out what's hot and what's not, and of course, indulge in the delicious, scrumptious, delightful, dainty, tasty, tempting, flavorable (need I go on?) gourmet dishes.

Skating

What's there to do on those lonely Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturday nights? I know, skating! Whether it be here at Oakwood, or at the Ice Plex Ice Skating Rink, we all enjoy synchronizing our body movements to the sounds of contemporary gospel music. As we glide along the rink we might stumble or miss a step and accidentlly fall, but skating wouldn't be skating if someone didn't end up on the ground. No skating session is ever compelete without our male students embracing those ladies and leading them around the rink to show off their skills. Let's not forget those "wannabe" skaters who come to the rink just to laugh at others. Don't pay them any attention, because they want to do what you are doing.

Everyone is having a good time.

The United Student Movement hosted its annual Valentine's Banquet at the Von Braun Center North Hall. The Banquet took place on February 21, 1999. Students, faculty, staff, and members of the community attended this extravaganza.

The entertainment was dynamic. It included a live band provided by Oakwood College along with special performing artist Ben Tankard and the Tribe of Benjamin.

Ben Tankard provided us with jazz music for the evening. The facility was decorated with stunning ice sculptures which complimented the "Winter Wonderland" theme. There was also a special performance by Miss Oakwood 1999, Camille Warren and the first runner-up in the 1999 Miss Oakwood Pageant, Andrea Waters.

This time of year brings out the best in everyone. Ladies put on their best gowns, and men put on their best suits and tuxedos. This was an unforgettable evening of elegance, style, and beauty.

Spiritual Life

"The Spirit of the Lord God is upon me because the Lord hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound." Isaiah 61:1.

For many, spiritual life begins here at Oakwood College. Since its, establishment in 1896, Oakwood's has been to "develop the total person, so that he or she might understand the true values of life and one's proper relationship and duty toward God and one's fellows humans.

Surrounded in an atmosphere that is peaceful, pleasant, and prosperous, many college students gain a heightened sense of fulfillment like never before...

This year Oakwood introduced a brand new flourishing of fellowship, determination, and inspiration that will undoubtedly strengthen the spiritual experience for years to come.

Prayer/Baptisms

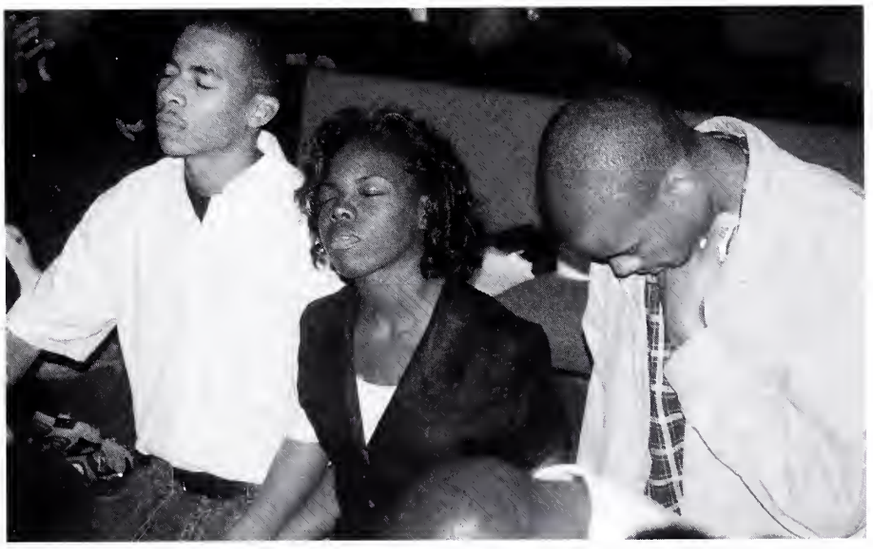

The Spirit of the Lord filled Oakwood College this year. Every rehearsal, prayer meeting, concert and gathering was indeed visited by His presence. Souls gave there hearts to God this year in record number leaving the devil a defeated foe. Over and over again the preached Word went to with power and conviction lifting the sin sick from the pit of despair. There is no other place like this place.

Oakwood College is blessed to have speakers such as Charles Tapp, James Doggette, Mason West, T. Marshall Kelley, John Nixon, Ken Burton, Lance Shand, and a host of other preacher men and women that are God's modern day messengers . Praise Him never again.

Bell Tower/Dorm Worship

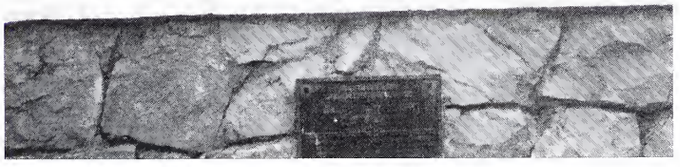

The Bell Tower is located in the center of the campus. Everyday at 12:00 p.m. students get together here to have midday worship. They begin their worship with song service and end it with closing prayer.

When asked how does Bell Tower worship impact your life, a student said, "The Bell Tower worship experience is like no other because it allows me pause in the middle of the day to spend time with God. When it is over I feel refreshed as if the day just began."

Dorm Worship takes place throughout the day. Each dormitory has a different time that they worship.

The grand old bell tower at the center of OC's campus.

We've got to pray just to make it through the day.

Chapel

"During the next few years while you are here are Oakwood College our mission is to aim for education eternity and excellence," he said as he delivered the first speech of the weekly chapel assembly, and somehow I knew it was not just another school year I would have to try to get through. I was the beginning of the most amazing intellectual, spiritual, and a life, changing journey that I would remember for the rest of my life. What I learned from chapel during that first semester has definitely change my life for good. Chapel takes place at 10:00 a.m. every Tuesday at he Oakwood College Church. This is a time for the students of Oakwood college to receive a message of encouragement and inspiration.

Inspirational speakers such as Ron Edmonds, Dr Russell-McCloud, Steve Cassimy, and Richard Palmer come from different parts of the country to deliver messsages of encouragement.

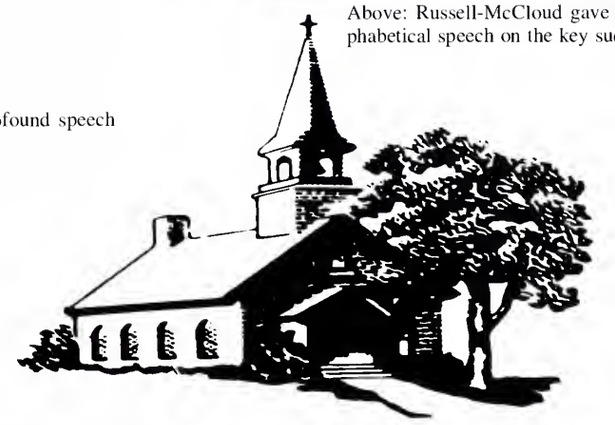

Chapel is also a time that is sometimes set aside for entertainment. Special guests for these occasions included Mark Payne (pianist).

NAPS

"Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."
Matthew 28:19

"NAPS is an able body of students serving the Lord through community service, spreading the message of love and hope to those less fortunate than ourselves."

--Michelle Hall

"NAPS provides ordinary people the ability to witness, to increase in personal growth, inreach as well as outreach, and to spread the love of Jesus in extraordinary ways."

--Toussaint Williams

"Through NAPS I'm able to serve God by serving others which prepares me for when we get to Heaven and do service with Him."

--Kristal James

"NAPS is the army of life E. G. White spoke about--fulfilling the gospel commission."

-- George Cyril

"Standing up for children is the most important mission in the world. If Rosa Parks can sit down for freedom, we can stand up for children."

--Marian Wright Edelman

N. A. P. S.

NAPS is an international, intercollegiate, nonprofit relief organization whose sole mission is to deliver physical, mental, as well as spiritual relief to those in need. NAPS knows no limits, confines to no bounds.

"NAPS is a life changing experience--it has most definatley changed my focus about what I plan to do with my life. NAPS teaches you to put others first. By doing so we are truly doing what God would have for us to do."

--Adwoa Opoku-Boateng

"NAPS has made me realize that the most important thing in life is bringing others to Christ, however you can, whether it be through local or foreign mission work. I have learned that everyone has a gift to use to save souls for the kingdom."

--Lilly Archer

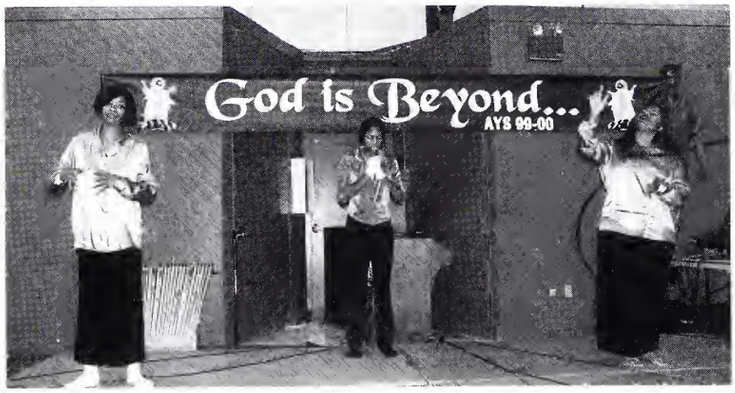

"Being a part of NAPS has been the richest experince for me here at Oakwood. It has taught me invaluable lessons and has played a significant role in preparing me to fulfill the will God has for my life. At best, I believe that NAPS truly promotes the standards by which Oakwood College stands, Education. Excellence. Eternity."

Friday Night Extravaganzas...

God is Beyond

Friday night was a time to leave all the cares of the week behind, get dressed and fill the skating rink with God's praises. Why? Because he's been Mmmm good. For the 99'- 00' school year Baron Savory led out as AYS leader and did an excellent job. AYS was spirit filled each night. Whether it was VOT, Dynamic praise or the the ladies of Carter Hall the singing was always good. WSB and various other drama groups kept us in rapt attention. Never again.

A different kind of AYS

"Lord, You are the source of my strength, you are the strength of my life I lift my hands in total praise to you." With these words performer Richard Smallwood entered the Oakwood College platform, as part of the Countdown 2000 celebrations. Anxious fans greeted him with a standing ovation as he recapitulated some of his most popular songs, from his albums Adoration- Live in Atlanta, and Healing –Live in Detroit , both of which he sang with Vision Such songs as Total Praise, "Healing", "Highest Praise", and You're "Not Alone".

were enjoyed by the 3,000 plus fans who filled the church to capacity. The event was a successful part of the activities planned to bring in the new Millennium. Oakwood College students and the Tennessee Valley community were pumped up as they listened to the familiar gospel tunes of Richard Smallwood.

The concert began with the lovely sounds of the Oakwood Orchestra and the beautiful Voices of the Aeolians Choir.

Creativity at Oakwood College

"To break through creativity, we must defer judgement. That is, learn to accept all ideas, without prejudice, and examine them each in turm."

Scott Isaksen

Art at a glance

Oakwood College is full of talent and some of the best music in the Tennessee Valley comes from Oakwood College's campus. People ask: "What is it about that school that attracts so much talent?" If one were to say that talented musicians are at Oakwood just waiting to be discovered, they would be right. Here on campus there are varieties of soloist, choirs: (Aeolians, Oakwood College Choir, Dynamic Praise, Voices of Triumph, Anointed Voices) and other talented musicians. The musical talent is only one aspect of art represented on OC's campus. Some of the nonmusical expression of art include poetry, drama, and instrumental performance.

What an exciting year this was for O.C. Exhilarating events were attended by the student body included: poetry reading by Gumbo, a drama presentation in the form of a play called Mental Slavery by Mkononnia (Swahili for Hands with a Purpose), a miming presentation performed by K and K Mimes, and pianist Mark Payne.

As a student it is not easy to balance school, social life and practice our variety of talents. Nonetheless these students did a spectacular job.

Richard Smallwood pianist did some things we've never seen.

Danielle runs those runs during the Richard Smallwood concert.

OC's orchestra has been remarkable this year.

Drama Performance:

Mental Slavery

"Mkononnia" means Hands with a purpose. On November 11, 1999, Moran Hall was filled to capacity, as students waited eagerly to witness the drama presentation "Mental Slavery." The crowd was deeply moved by the drama. "Mental Slavery" allowed the students to go back in time and get a feel of how the slaves struggled for their freedom. The student's minds were filled with appreciation for what their ancestors had done for them. This drama also allowed students to reevaluate their own lives to see what they could do for others.

The drama "Mental Slavery "focuses on a slave that has struggled and has enterrd 1999 to see his Great, Great, Great,Grandson. The slave is not pleased with his grandson's choice of life style.

Miming

With out saying a word K&K mime blessed our hearts. They came creatively and silently on October 7, 1999, to Moran Hall auditorium. K&K Mime ministry consists of Keith and Karl twin brother originally from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. For yearrs they have been traveling the country spreading the love of Christ in a powerfully silent way. Their preciseness in movement was intriguing to everyone that attended. This was just another Thursday night that touched our hearts. Never Again.

Word Play:

The poetry Reading

What is Gumbo? It is a mystical night at jazz club. As the beat is getting ready to perform each member (the poets) come out and express what Gumbo means to them—Gumbo being the literary journal and their personal feelings towards poetry. All the while they are reading, those awaiting the jazz performance in the back are posing as Calvin Cline models.

Amore' A beautiful day in Italy causes everyone to come out and enjoy its splendor. As people dine in the café: ride in the gondola, picnic, paint, and casually lounge around, a bothersome mime takes the opportunity to join the merriment without an invitation. His antics lead each poet to express the current emotion, conjured by love, that they are feeling until there is no one left to speak. I conclude with a humorous poem by the mime himself.

Consciousness: This scene goes beyond simple, everyday subjects and explores the realities of existence. Each poet, guided by an African dancer, approach the front of the stage and read from an ancient book of knowledge, which allows them to express their personal views of prevalent issues that embedded in the world's social conscience.

Revelations – A dark figure stands in the middle of the stage as people lay sleeping all around. He reveals himself in poetry and then leaves his dirty work to his imp, whose job is the include the sleepers into joining their side. Each poet wakes up and, through their poem decided which side to

DEEP @ Southern University

Seven amicable students from Oakwood College ventured to Southern Adventist University for the second annual year of student exchange between the two schools. Beginning in August of the 1999 semester, Petra Dotson, JaJa Fields, Prisca James, Jason Thomas, Steven Sanders, and Kelly Lee went to Collegdale, Tennesse for a once only experience Never to happen Again.

"I'm really glad that Oakwood and Southern started this program because it allowed me to make new friends and meet different people."

Jason Thomas

" My experience at Southern will be one I will never forget." Jaja Fields

" It was a learning experience. I met a lot of people and had fun."

Rachel Valcen

"Going to Southern was a one of the best experiences of my life and if I could do it again I would."

President's Message

"Discovery consists of looking at the same thing as everyone else and thinking something different."

Albert Szent-Gyorgyi

At times during the year of 1999, the world stood nervously on the cliff of history and saw the birth of the millennium as potential catastrophic event. Economists, historians, politicians, and religious leaders predicted worldwide havoc as January 1, 2000 stepped closer each day. Meanwhile, as the world community waited like a nervous expecting mother, a chosen group of men and women in Huntsville, Alabama, saw the millenium and thought something else: an opportunity to march steadfastly in the will of God.

Through prayer, poise, passion, pain, and persistence, we made it. For many of us the "it" may represent various things. During our tenure at Oakwood, we made good and bad grades; we made money and the most of what we had. During our stay in Peterson, Carter, Wade, Edwards, and Cunnigham we made friendships and late night snacks. From Knight Hall to Moseley Complex, we made our professors conduits of profuse knowledge, and for some of us we made a quiet nap in the back of class. Regardless of what we made, the fruits of our meager hands are trivial morsels of human concern when compared to what God will make of us.
As we enter offices and graduate schools across the span of the globe we must visualize the destiny God has for us. These years at Oakwood would have been unavailing if we reach our destination but not arrive at God's destiny. God's destiny does not call for us to sit, wait, and expect, but it demands us to adapt, improvise, and conquer. I charge you, class of 2000, not to march to the beat of fame and fortune, but to stride to the cadence of the Living and Almighty God.

Maya your jeans look a extra wet. Did ya have a few a falls?

Seniors you've been there, done that. Now it's time to get up and out. Looking back it was worth the late nights, the extra trip to Wal-Mart, the hugs and kisses, yelling and screaming , long lines, redial button, 40 page paper, curfew, rent, utilities, transcript fee, recomendations, Thanksgiving in the Ville, Nashville, Boaz, Atlanta, and Birmingham, snacks for a quarter, a gallon of water, chapel fines, that date to the Banquet, mud on your shoes, a bad hair day, R.A.'s, signing in, signing out, notebooks, Bic pens, Great Value, Exquisite Concepts, Tailor Made, expensive gas, I- 565, spell check, Computer Lab, Philosophy of Christian Education, Student Services, Wednesday night prayer, intramurals, the parkway, Microsoft Word, Pin Palace, Ramen Noodles, humidity, Strong's Dictionary /Concordance, the right color on your ID, quarters, Excel, Sally's, book vouchers, Student Accounts, milk and cereal, a C-, Greyhound, out of order, an orange, books for cash, early registration. Never Again!

Ernie, Julian, and Virginia, smiles to last a lifetime.

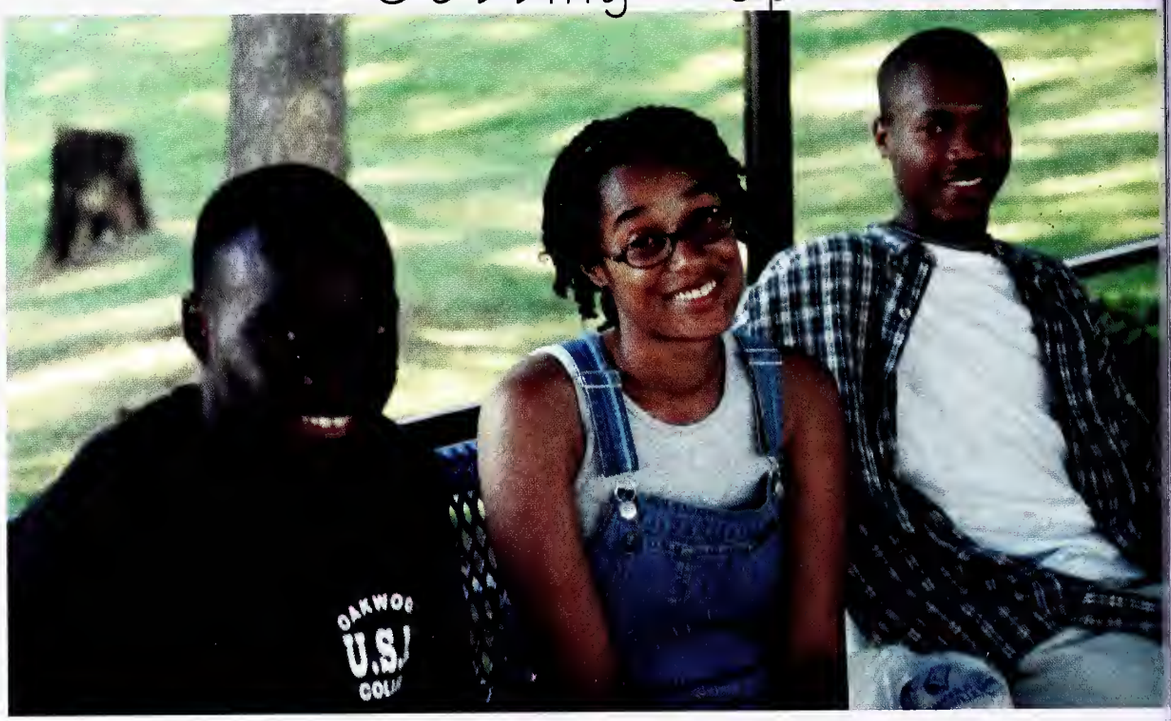

Mark you're not a bad looking guy!

And Out...

Getting Up

Wow! These guys really loved Oakwood!

Yasmin were you planning to walk out the dorm like that? Come now!

Look up suave in the dictonary and Kareem's name is there guys.

Jamar the library veteran. Maybe you can take Dr. Lewis's place when she makes that move. Think about it.

Ms. Hyman's Creative Drama class. Left to Right... Kevin, Brenee, Desmond, Erica, Travis, Andrea, and Steven. Aren't they cute.

Karin another library veteran. Th e smile of an Oakwood Woman.

Bron do you know how to work that thing?

B.J. and crew hanging out during Leadership week.

AND OUT...

Breath, Eyes, Memory

On the road to Chicago.

Going Home

moving forward in time
relying on inspired time

bring us back home
to that good old time

when we were once black children of slavery
oppresion giving no slack and so I spoke out about feeling black and recorded it to be just mine!
set it free to travel throughout fibers of time great scholars of Timbuktu have opened for me and you the door with the key of black time so that we can now move forward in this time

moving forward to that good old time millennium approaches with signs assemble your tools, oh great black mind prepare for the future of mankind the tools right here for you so you don't have to go as far as Timbuktu
Brooks, Angelou, Troupe, Giovanni, and Sanchez to name a few variant experiences of black enough to supply the millennium new the motivation of writers, poets, and artists to be flying high on papyrus of history told anew with vibrant energy a new generation of expression coming closer to the ultimate goal of unification

bring us back home
to that good old time

W. Ernie Manning

Senior Sabbath

November 6, 1999 marked a coming to gether for the 1st class of the new millenium. Moran Hall glowed with an Autumn sun while jubiliant seniors lifted their voices in praise to the God who sits high and looks low.

Although Moran was not packed out, Vinson Jones Senior class President made it evident that all we needed was the Holy Spirit in the room. Voices of Triumph shook the rafters, as did the trio of Anika Sampson, Dana Wilson, and Eric ? . Bennet Wooley led in a dynamic prayer that took us to the throne room of God. Then reassurance was found when Bron Jacobs gave Biblical guidance in finding God's will for one's life. Scripture after scripture was listed to aid that one who doesn't know what will happen after the cap and gown are taken off. God's prescense was truly felt.

Anika , Dana, and Eric in harmony. And they said they found out 20 minutes earlier!

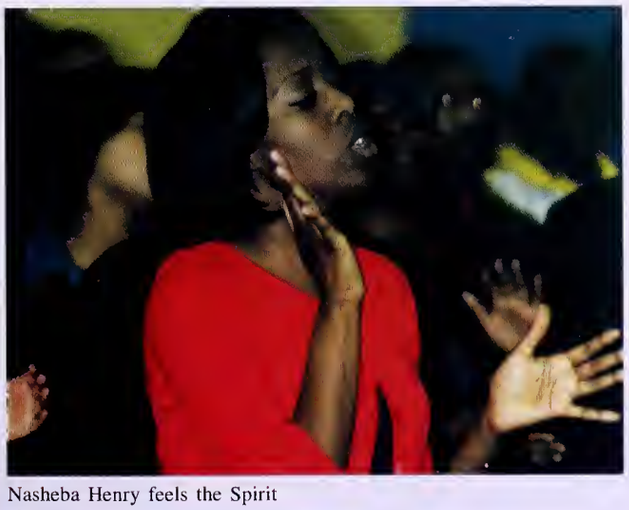

Baron Savory read from the word while Bron Jacobs presented a timely message on finding direction for one's life.

Hallelujah is the Highest Praise! Kendra Jones and Friends give God the praise.

Nasheba Henry feels the Spirit above.

Chris Bailey brings it home during lesson study.

Presentation Ceremony

Class of 2000

January 19, 2000 at 9:30 o'clock am

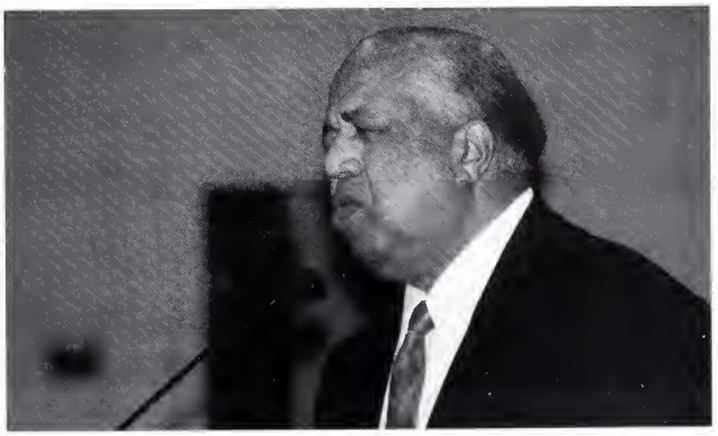

Dr. James Doggette gave a timeley message charging the seniors to defy complacency.

Just a little while longer...

Senior Presentation: the halfway mark, the light at the end of the tunnel, next to the last hurra before graduation. Presentation, what's so great about it? Well, this event not only keeps one's eyes on the prize of graduation, but it gives one a the reason to endure. Presenation reminds us we should endure through exams, late transcripts and recomendations, 40 page research papers, senior dues, yearbook retakes, an extra loan, 21 credit hours and home study, and a host of other trials unique to seniors. Senior Presenation puts things in perspective. It tells us that it won't be long and never again.

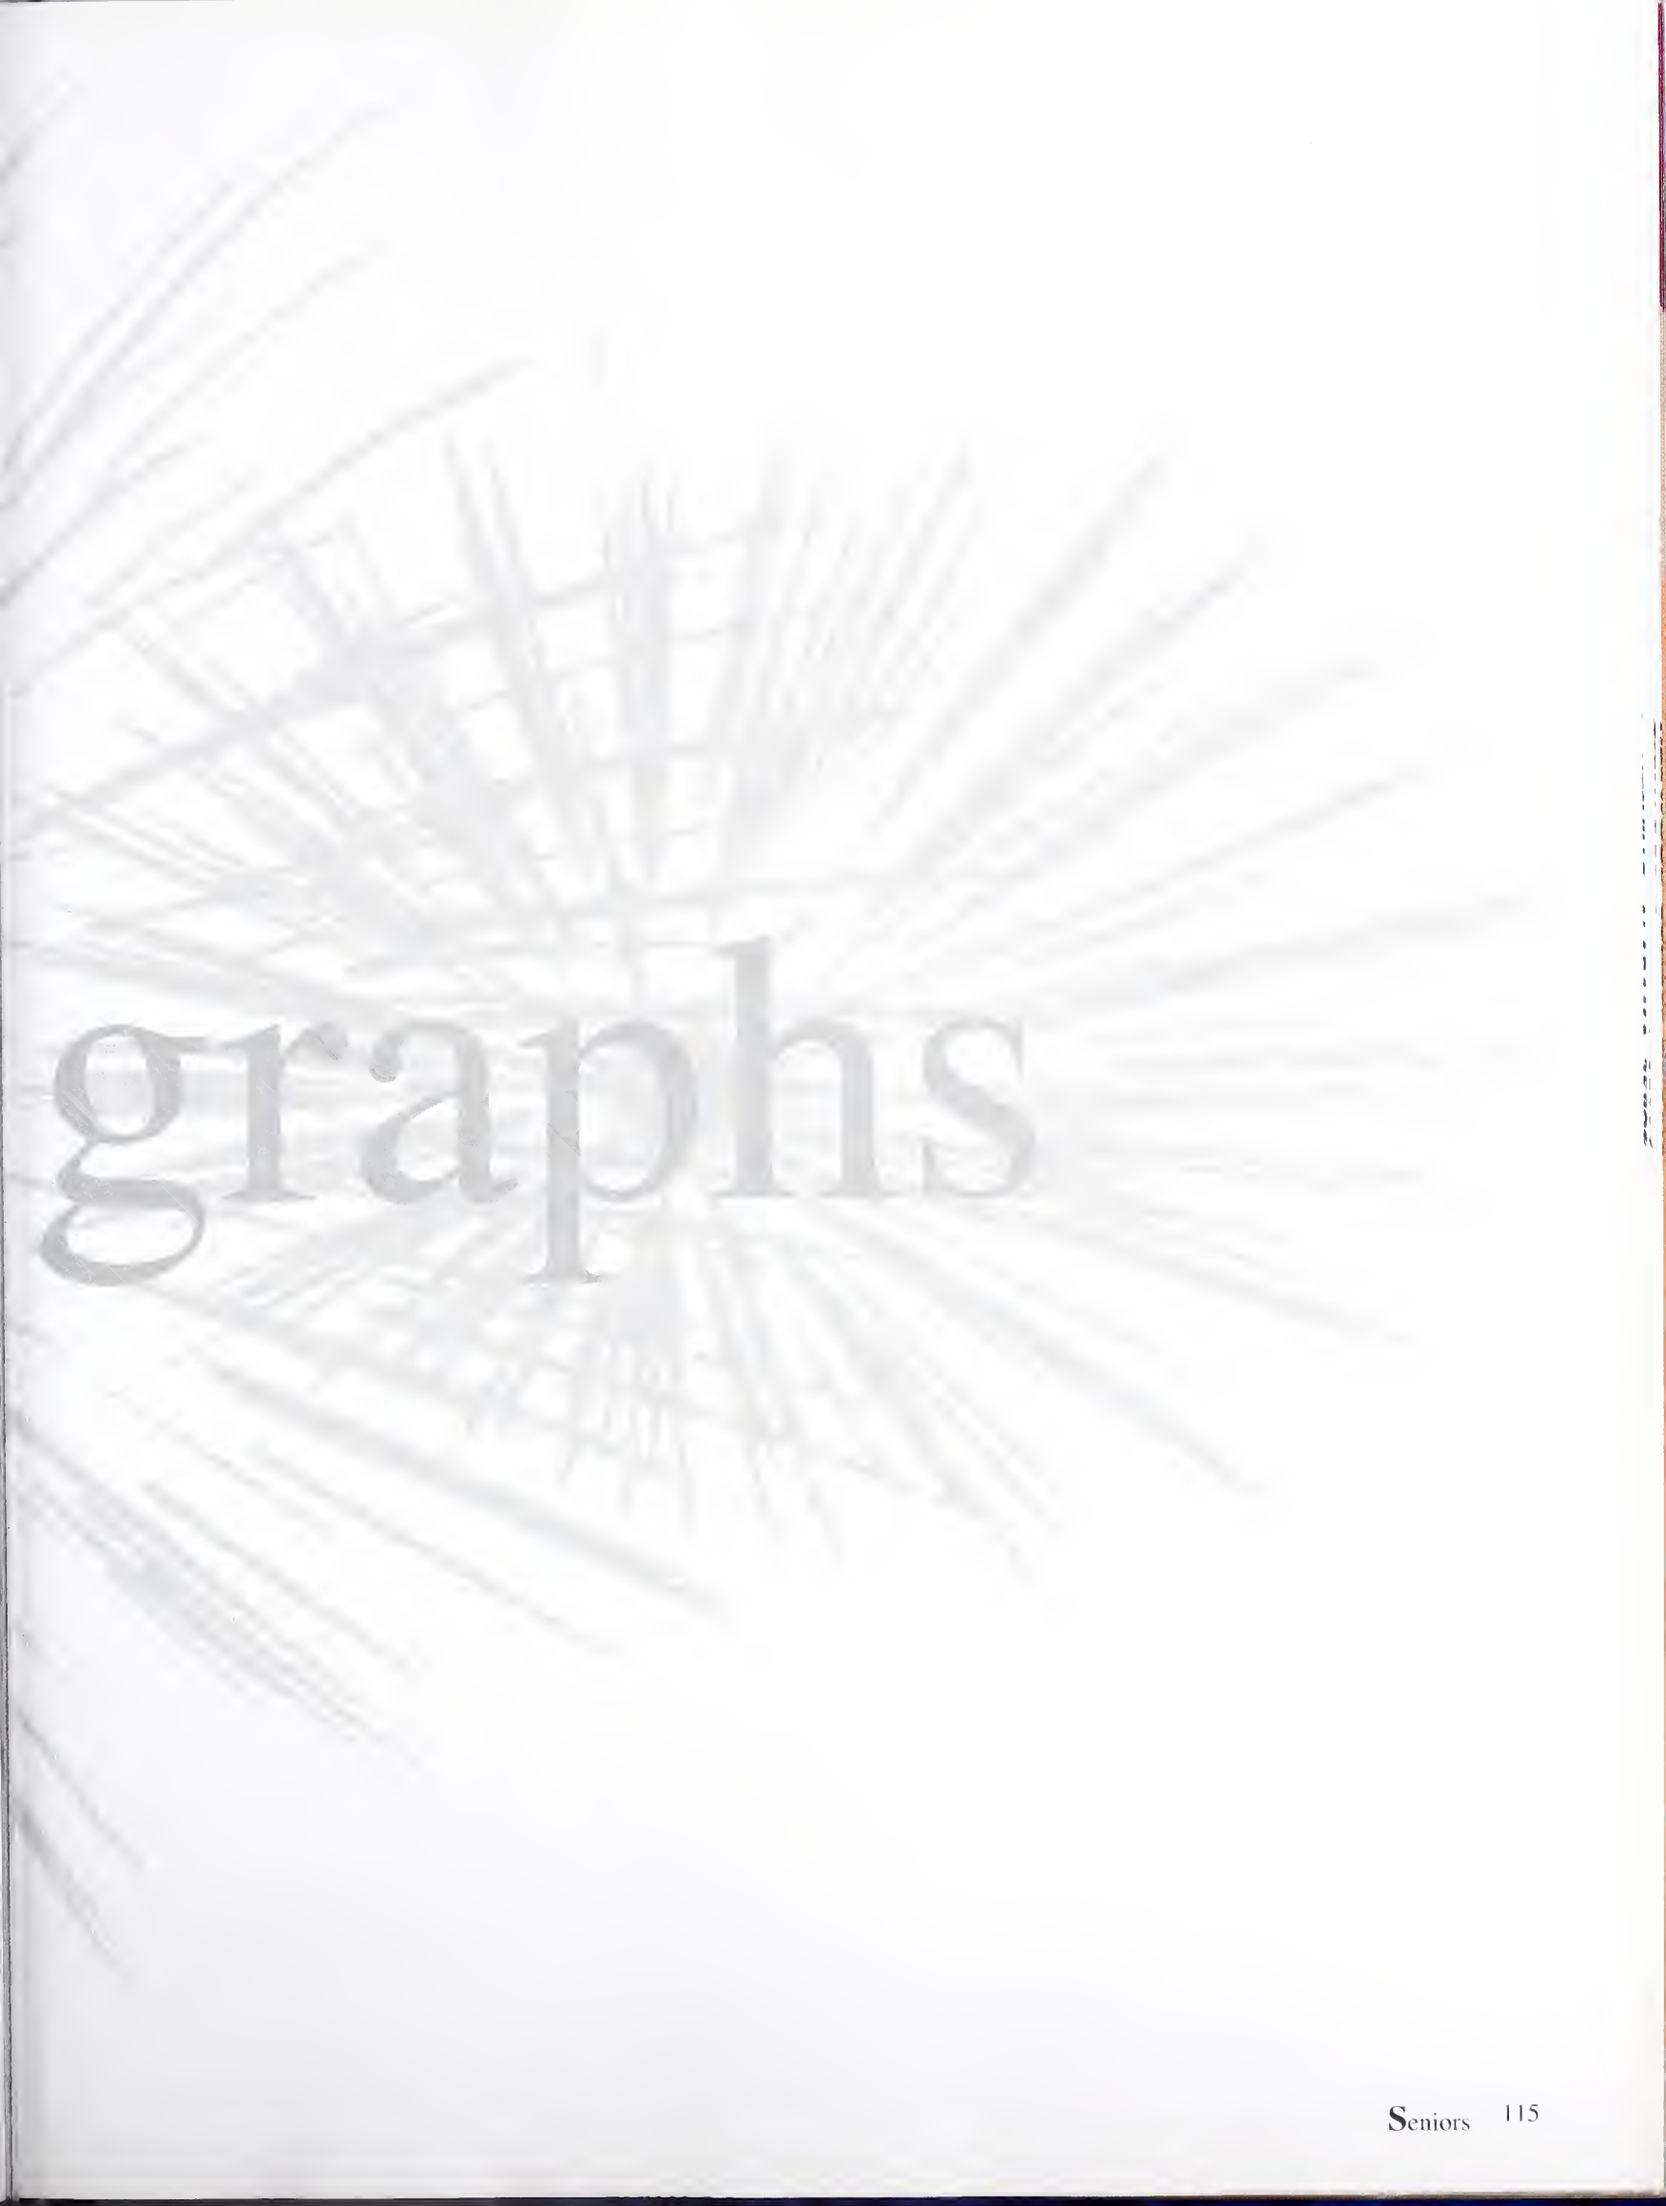

Rwandla's response had every senior on their feet. Maybe you should change your major, Candie.

Nothing could be better than having Elder Marshall T. Kelly pray a prayer of dedication for you.

Oakwood's Finest

They challenge us to better, and then to be our best. Working long hours for little recompense, the factulty and staff of Oakwood College are truly the finest. They have sacrificed big bucks that they may have earned working in the public sector to come to a small liberal arts Seventh-day Adventist college in Huntsville, Alabama. Why? Because they have sensed God's calling them to more than just a nice salary with a 401 k plan; they want more. Oakwood's finest are instruments used by God to excellence.

Was the media coverage of the death of John F. Kennedy Jr. excessive or appropriate?

64%	Excessive
36%	Appropriate

The dreadful events that plagued the life of John F. Kennedy Jr. painted an eerie backdrop for the tragic plane crash that killed him, his wife, Carolyn Bessette Kennedy, and her sister, Lauren Bessette. The bodies of the three victims were recovered by divers in the Atlantic about seven miles off of Martha's Vineyard, where the Piper Saratoga II Kennedy was piloting crashed five days before. In the end, the nation and the world was left to mourn the loss of a man they came to know as a little boy, saluting the casket of his assassinated father, a boy who grew up to inherit the bittersweet Kennedy legacy.

The San Antonio Spurs held off the New York Knicks in June to win the team's first-ever NBA championship. The Spurs, led by David Robinson and Tim Duncan, clinched all four playoff series games on the road, completing the playoffs with a 15-2 record. The team also set an NBA single-season record with 12 consecutive victories in the postseason.

Robert Downey Jr., the one-time Oscar nominee and star of such films as "Natural Born Killers" and "Less Than Zero," was sentenced in August to three years in prison for violating his probation on drugs and weapons charges. The 34-year-old actor had made several attempts at rehabilitation prior to his latest arrest, and had spent more than six months behind bars.

A controversial goal in the third overtime lifted the Dallas Stars to victory over the Buffalo Sabres in Game 6 of the Stanley Cup Finals in June. On the winning goal, Dallas' Brett Hull took two whacks at the puck and finally knocked it past the Sabres' fallen goalie. After further review, the shot was ruled fair to give Dallas its first championship in franchise history.

The first century of the second millennium began with Leif Eriksson sailing west to become the first European in the New World. Eriksson and 35 other men crossed the Atlantic from Greenland to a place they called Vinland near what is now Newfoundland. The year was 1000 A.D.

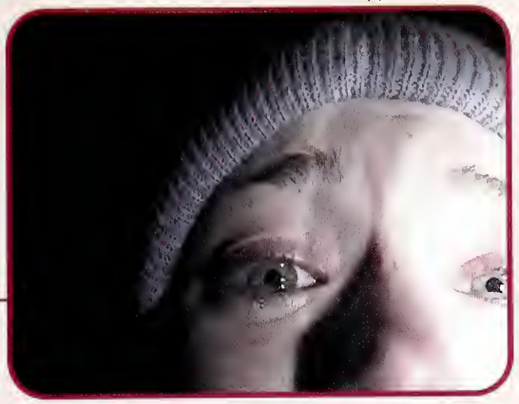

A new measure of literary brilliance was discovered in 1008 when Japan's Lady Murasaki Shikibu wrote what is believed to be the first true novel, "The Tale of Genji." The colorful story of the life and loves of Prince Genji is considered a masterpiece and the pinnacle of Japanese literature.

Canute of Denmark became the king of England in 1016, following the death of his father who had conquered the country three years before. While presiding over a period of prosperity in England, Canute the Great also

The low-budget horror documentary, "The Blair Witch Project," came out of nowhere, earning more than $150 million and competing with major studio releases, such as "The Sixth Sense," in the summer box office race. Having been made for less than $35,000, the movie beat the odds to become the most profitable motion picture of all time.

A deadly earthquake measuring 7.6 on the Richter scale rocked western Turkey in August. By far the year's most catastrophic, the earthquake killed more than 17,000 people. Several serious aftershocks followed the main earthquake, destroying thousands of buildings and leaving hundreds of thousands of people homeless and living in tent cities.

The U.S. women's soccer team battled for 120 minutes to a scoreless tie before defeating China, 5-4, on penalty kicks in the World Cup Final. The exciting win captured the hearts of America, resulting in hero status for the team's 20 members and a shot in the arm for women's sports overall. Additionally, the World Cup championship was credited for boosting soccer's marginal stature in the United States.

suppressed uprisings in Denmark and defeated Norway. He died in 1035 as king of all three countries and a highly respected power in European politics.

William, duke of Normandy, a.k.a William the Conqueror, led a triumphant charge over Harold, earl of Wessex, in the Battle of Hastings in 1066. At issue was the throne of England, which had been promised to William, but given to Harold. His army no match for the Normans, Harold was finally slain and William won the English crown.

Pope Urban II launched a crusade in 1095 to reclaim the Holy Land from the Turks. After several waves of battle, Christian soldiers eventually took Jerusalem in 1099. The triumph was short-lived and the Crusades continued for another 200 years.

June 1 — American Airlines Flight 1420 carrying 145 passengers skidded off a runway, broke apart and burst into flames during an emergency landing at a Little Rock, Ark., airport. Eleven people were killed and at least 83 others were injured in the crash, which occurred during a gusty hail storm. Winds of 90 mph caused the aircraft to slam into a steel light pole, split into pieces and catch fire, coming to a rest at the edge of the Arkansas River.

June 7 — The WNBA announced its selection of Indiana, Miami, Portland, Ore., and Seattle as expansion franchises to begin play in the 2000 season. The additions brought the two-year-old women's basketball league to 16 teams. Eight teams were part of the WNBA when play began in 1997 with franchises in Charlotte, Cleveland, Houston, New York, Los Angeles, Phoenix, Sacramento and Utah. Teams were added in Detroit and Washington before the 1998 season, and in 1999, Minnesota and Orlando joined the league.

June 15 — Rosa Parks, 86, the black woman whose refusal to give up her bus seat to a white man made her a symbol for civil rights, received the Congressional Gold Medal, the highest honor bestowed by the U.S. Congress, during a ceremony in the Capitol Rotunda. She was lauded by President Clinton and House and Senate leaders. As a recipient of the award, Parks was in elite company with people like Nelson Mandela and Mother Teresa having been honored before her.

June 29 — Sportscaster Marv Albert was rehired by NBC as one of the announcers on the network's NBA crew. The move came two years after he was fired in a lurid sex scandal, which resulted in a guilty plea for sexual assault of a woman in a Virginia hotel room. In December, it was announced that Albert would return next fall to his former position as NBC's lead basketball announcer.

Millions gathered all over Europe and gazed curiously skyward to see the moon smother the light of the sun as the last total solar eclipse of the millennium swept across the continent in August. The eclipse, moving at a speed of 1,500 m.p.h., cast darkness on the land for about two minutes. It will be 82 years before Europeans see another solar eclipse.

Maurice Greene of the United States made a last-minute decision to run the 100 meters in an Athens, Greece, invitational in June. When it was over, he had run the fastest time in history. Greene finished the 100 meters with a time of 9.79, a full five-hundreths of a second faster than the record set by Donovan Bailey of Canada at the 1996 Atlanta Olympics.

Prince Edward, the youngest child of Queen Elizabeth, and publicist Sophie Rhys-Jones were married in a modest ceremony at St. George's Chapel inside Windsor Castle in June. The prince chose to forgo the royal pageantry that had accompanied the weddings of his siblings, most notably Prince Charles, all of which ended in divorce.

All 217 passengers on EgyptAir Flight 990 were killed when the Boeing 767 crashed into the Atlantic off the Massachusetts coast. As search crews recovered pieces of the airliner from the ocean floor, speculation mounted that relief pilot Gamil al-Batouty intentionally crashed the plane. Information collected from the flight data recorder did reveal that al-Batouty turned off the engines and deployed the speed brakes. Although U.S. investigators suspected that al-Batouty had a death wish, no suicide note or evidence of terrorism emerged.

Santana's eight Grammys were the most won by a single performer in the history of the awards, tying the record set by Michael Jackson in 1983. Joining Santana as multiple Grammy winners were the Dixie Chicks and Sting, both winning two awards each. The Dixie Chicks' "Fly" was named best country album, while Sting's "Brand New Day" earned the Grammy for best pop album.

Vice President Al Gore and former New Jersey Sen. Bill Bradley had the luxury of only worrying about each other as Election 2000 heated up with the primaries in February. Polls in the head-to-head race between the two Democratic presidential hopefuls showed Gore with a commanding 64 percent to 26 percent lead over Bradley. Overall, Gore was behind in the polls against Texas Gov. George W. Bush, the leading Republican candidate, with Bush holding a 50 percent to 46 percent lead. History was also working against the vice president, considering only four sitting vice presidents — John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, Martin Van Buren and George Bush — had ever been elected directly to the presidency.

Revolution characterized the times in the 18th Century with both North America and France fighting in the name of liberty. In April 1775, British regulars engaged militia at Lexington and Concord, Mass., to set off the American Revolution. After seven years of war, the crown was defeated and American freedom was won.

David Letterman returned to his late-night talk show five weeks after having heart surgery in January. Taking it slow at first, the 52-year-old host mixed in his own appearances with guest hosts as he continued to recover. Letterman underwent an emergency quintuple bypass operation after a test revealed a blocked artery. CBS received a substantial boost in ratings as a result of Letterman's quick return, which happened in the midst of February sweeps.

Winston Cup driver Dale Jarrett captured his third Daytona 500 victory in eight years, matching Bobby Allison's total and leaving him behind only Richard Petty and Cale Yarborough for all-time wins in NASCAR's biggest race. Jarrett led 89 of the 200 laps and passed Johnny Benson four laps from the end, taking advantage of two late cautions. Dominant during the week leading up to the 500, Jarrett easily won the pole position in time trials and dominated the field in a 25-lap race for last year's top qualifiers.

January 21 — A cyber-confessional was launched allowing sinners to repent by typing transgressions into a space provided in order to make peace with God. Operated by London-based Premier Christian Radio, the web site featured passages from the Bible, inspirational poems and prayers set against a backdrop of blue sky, clouds, sunflowers and leaves. Visitors to www.theconfessor.co.uk were assured that whatever sin they typed in would be erased when the confession was over. The web site made no demands for penance. In a public statement, the Roman Catholic Church condemned the idea.

January 31 — Commissioner Bud Selig levied a 73-day suspension and $20,000 fine against Atlanta Braves pitcher John Rocker for the racist and homophobic remarks he made in a Sports Illustrated article. The suspension was to start at the beginning of spring training and extend through the first 28 days of the season. Selig also ordered the 25-year-old relief pitcher to enroll in sensitivity classes and banned him from even being present during spring training. Rocker and the Players Association began an appeal in February to overturn the decision. Rocker publicly apologized for the comments, but said he believed the penalty was excessive and hoped on appeal it would be overturned or at least reduced significantly.

The first manned flight of a heavier-than-air craft by the Wright brothers in 1903 was a monumental benchmark, achieving one of humanity's wildest dreams. On a pleasant December day, Orville Wright took to the sky for 12 seconds over the sand dunes of Kitty Hawk, N.C., in an airplane he designed with his brother, Wilbur. Like kids with a new toy, the two brothers, bicycle mechanics by trade, took turns flying the craft made of wood, wire and cloth, at one point keeping it aloft for 59 seconds. The Wright brothers' craft, which they called the Flyer, made what was once considered impossible possible and opened the heavens for the future advancement of flight. Those advancements happened very quickly with nearly all the elements of the modern airplane in place a mere 15 years after Orville and Wilbur's historic day at Kitty Hawk.

World War I, also called the Great War, began in 1914 when a Serbian nationalist assassinated Archduke Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne. Austria-Hungary immediately declared war on Serbia, which prompted other declarations of war, ultimately leading to every major power in Europe getting involved. On one side were the Allies — chiefly France, Britain, Russia, and the U.S. — and on the other were the Central Powers made up of Germany, Austria-Hungary, and Turkey. The war, considered one of the bloodiest in history, ended with the signing of the armistice in 1918. In the end, 10 million were dead and 20 million wounded. This unprecedented bloodshed contributed to a general loathing against war, leading many to support multinational disarmament pacts and the newly formed League of Nations.

Einstein. Freud. Picassa. Three fascinating men who left an indelible mark on the 20th Century. Albert Einstein revolutionized the theory of light, greatly advanced physics and scientific inquiry, and changed forever man's view of the universe. Sigmund Freud developed free association, broadened our view of human nature and sexuality and accelerated the age of self-examination. Pablo Picasso helped create Cubism, pioneered innovations in sculpture and lithography and experimented with new media. All three captivated imaginations around the world with their magnificent intelligence and compelling personalities.

The stock market crash in 1929 was an eerie harbinger of the Great Depression, which hung like a black cloud over the 1930s. Between Sept. 3 and Oct. 29, the Dow lost 120 points or nearly one third. That final day, dubbed "Black Tuesday" in the press, wiped out everyone as stock markets all over Europe reacted to the sell off. And, when it seemed like it couldn't get any worse, it did. On Nov. 13, the Dow closed at 199. The New York Stock Exchange fell from $80 billion to $50 billion between Sept. 3 and Nov. 13. The damage was done and the Great Depression began.

The horrific actions of Germany's Adolf Hitler and his Nazi regime against the Jews of Europe, coupled with similar totalitarian regimes in Japan and Italy, launched the Second World War in 1939. With the Japanese bombing of Pearl Harbor in 1941, the U.S. joined Great Britain and the Allied Forces to fight the aggression of the Axis powers. Decisive victories by the Allies led to Italy's surrender in 1943. Germany surrendered unconditionally in 1945, when Hitler committed suicide and the German resistance collapsed. Later that year, with U.S. troops poised to invade Japan's home islands, President Harry Truman ordered the dropping of the atomic bomb on Hiroshima and Nagasaki. Japan quickly announced its surrender, thereby bringing to an end the costliest war in history.

Racial unrest simmered to a boil in 1955 with two key events sparking one of the greatest civil rights movements in history. The first involved a young black girl named Linda Brown, who questioned her inability to attend the school nearest her home. Brown v the Board of Education of Topeka eventually resulted in a Supreme Court decision banning segregation in public schools and opening the door to equal access to education for blacks in America. That was just the beginning. A short time after the Brown decision, Rosa Parks, a 42-year-old black woman, refused to give up her seat to a white passenger on a bus in Montgomery, Ala., and was arrested. Martin Luther King Jr. got involved at that point and carried the torch for his people until he was assassinated 13 years later.

The aspirations of a young leader and a supporting nation came to an abrupt halt on Nov. 22, 1963, when President John F. Kennedy was assassinated by rifle fire while being driven in an open car through the streets of Dallas. JFK's assassination shocked a nation and profoundly changed the way people viewed the world. At 46, Kennedy became the fourth president to be assassinated and the eighth to die in office. The alleged assassin, 24-year-old Lee Harvey Oswald, was shot and killed by nightclub owner Jack Ruby two days later, leaving behind only suspicions of what his motives were and whether or not he was the lone gunman. Although the Warren Commission determined Oswald probably acted alone, the House Select Committee on Assassinations concluded in 1979 that a conspiracy was likely and that it may have involved organized crime. These differing opinions served to bolster the black cloud of controversy that has continued to surround the Kennedy assassination.

The impact of the Beatles revolutionized the music industry and, in one way or another, touched the lives of all who heard them. The first U.S. troops were committed to Vietnam in 1961 by President John F. Kennedy at the request of South Vietnamese President Ngo Dinh Diem. Their mission was to help fight North Vietnamese communists controlled by Ho Chi Minh and southern rebels of the Viet Cong. The number of troops committed was minimal at first, and the American people accepted the action, believing it was necessary to halt the spread of communism. By 1968, U.S. troop build-up in Vietnam would reach its peak of 549,000 troops. Although there had been notable anti-war sentiment from the beginning, opposition eventually grew to a two to one margin. By 1973, when the war ended and U.S. troops returned home, two to three million Vietnamese and 58,000 Americans had been killed.

What was once thought to be impossible became a reality in 1969, when Apollo 11 astronauts set foot on the moon. Those historic steps were taken by Edwin E. Aldrin Jr. and Neil A. Armstrong, who descended to the moon's surface and landed their lunar module in the Sea of Tranquility. Armstrong stepped first and addressed the world with what has become one of the best-known phrases of modern times: "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." It was also a giant leap ahead for Americans in the space race with Russia. Six additional Apollo missions were made before the end of the program in December 1972 and, with the exception of Apollo 13, all landed successfully on the lunar surface.

The explosion of the space shuttle Challenger in 1986, resulting in the deaths of all seven astronauts aboard, horrified the nation and the world and dealt a severe blow to NASA's fledgling shuttle program. Challenger exploded 73 seconds after liftoff from Kennedy Space Center in Florida, as millions watched on television. A presidential panel determined that the fatal flaw was not in Challenger, but rather a faulty sealant ring in one of two 149-foot-tall solid rocket boosters. Dead as a result of the worst disaster in the history of space exploration was Christa McAuliffe, who was to be the first teacher and private citizen in space, and crew members Frank Scobee, Michael Smith, Judith Resnik, Ellison Onizuka, Ronald McNair and Gregory Jarvis. Two years passed before another shuttle was launched into space.

"A Whole New Kind of Woman"

When I saw you on stage frozen in your business atmosphere,
I knew A Whole New Kind of Woman wasn't getting crowned, she was already here.
From your introduction you had me under your hypnotic spell.
With grace you walked, with an authority you talked, you were doing well.

Then your talent presentation took it to a whole new dimension.
Not to mention, that God's interlude has everyone's attention.
A Whole New Kind of Woman, I think you're just being yourself.
Just note that doing that entire talent segment you were being felt.

Let me not talk about the evening gown you wore.
Compared to the other gowns yours definitely soared
It had to be a sin to look that good, because even I wanted to repent.
The thought that went into selecting that evening gown was truly well spent.

Then it was time to select the top three and trust; you were number one on my list
When I heard your name called I felt an overabundance of happiness.
The answer you gave sounded like you already new the question.
After I heard your reply it was obvious, you were the one.

When I saw you being crowned Miss Oakwood a tear rolled from my eye.
I know you deserved that title and didn't even have to wonder why.
You're A Whole New Kind of Woman, what else can I say?
But congratulation, Aukea M. Joseph, for being Miss Oakwood 2 K.

"The feelings that I experienced that night, I have never experienced before. This was a feeling of great variety. There was power; yet nervousness and anxiety, pleasure, yet there was nausea. There was feeling of high self worth, yet there was selflessness because I know it was all God. Besides the day of the pageant, this experience has definitely caused me to grow as an individual.

It has caused my mind to become acute, and it hads definitely prepared me for the workforce. Inside it has caused me to be more self-confident so that I can present myself in the best light possible. The pageant has caused me to become much closer to God. He has shown me that he is certainly everything."

How about that? "A Black Statue of Liberty"

"Being involved with the Miss Oakwood Pageant has been an exciting and rewarding experience. I thoroughly enjoyed the relationship I was able to develop with the other contestants. Because of this we were able to pray together as a group. We shared the same qualities, we were very optimistic, we never had tension, nor did we have any negative words to say about each other. Being a part of this pageant has made me stronger and more cognizant of qualities that I didn't know existed within me. Whether the outcome is a success or failure depends on what you wanted it to be as an individual and the collective attitude of everyone else who was also a participant."

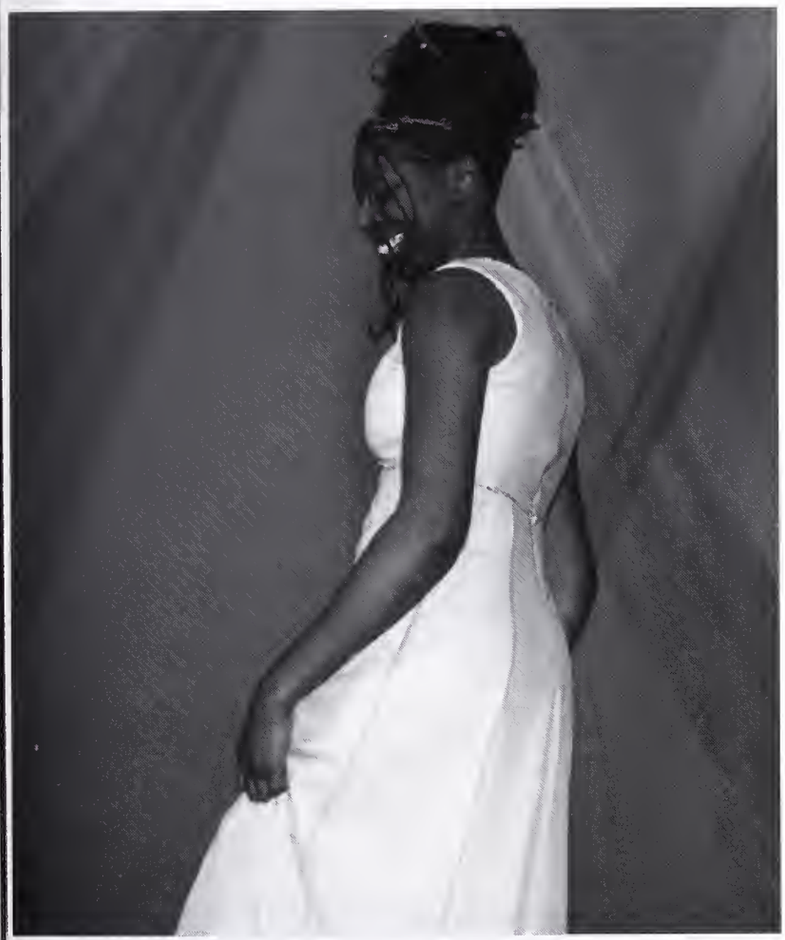

Keotisha Aundra O'Giste

" Good News! He has the Whole World in Hand "

"Being a part of the Miss Oakwood Pageant has been an unforgettable experience that I would never trade for the world. I learned so much about myself and what I am capable of. Every single one of us found that we could relate to the other in more ways than one. I really don't believe that anyone understands friendship at its best unless given the opportunity to be part of something, that is supposed to be a competition, that turns out to be the total opposite.

It was simply amazing how each individual involved, made it a point to make sure that everyone else was okay, and that our needs were met. Self was nowhere to be found, for clearly this was a joint effort."

Tiffany Sidra Taylor

" She Spread Her Wings and Flew "

"Words cannot express what an invaluable experience being part of the Miss Oakwood Pageant was. I can honestly say the six of my biggest encouragers were my fellow contestants. Together with our coaches we worked late hours working on our steps, our speech, and our talents. By doing this we were able to form a family that genuinely cared about each other's needs and wants. As we got prepared, I praise God every day for bringing together the unique assemblage of individuals that He did for this year's pageant.

When the big night finally arrived my heart palpitations from nervousness. I felt as if I was in some amazing dream, my stage fight evaporated causing me to perform my best. That was a miracle that I truly give to God, because only He could have helped me through this pageant. I can't state how much I truly feel blessed to have a part of this experience. Through it I made a whole slew of new friends, learned a lot about myself and grew as a person by leaps and bounds. Experiences like that don't come a dime a dozen."

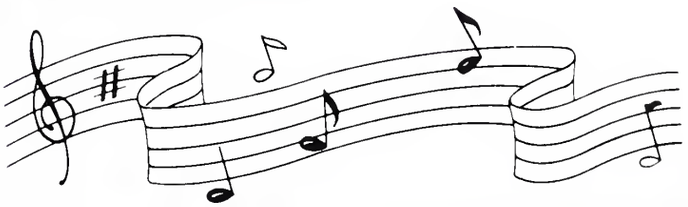

Angela Jeanice Warden

" The Dancing Flute"

"A Whole New Kind of Woman was more than a pageant for me. I was able to grow together with the other ladies and myself. We all grew together and cared for the well being of not just ourselves, but everybody. As the moment arrive to take center stage, I felt an overwhelming joy and peace. I felt nervous, at time even nauseated, but I kept praying and reciting Philippians 4:7 and Isaiah 26:3.

Thinking in retrospect, I feel that I have gained many things that I will keep with me for life. Some of these things include, but are not limited to, the ability to perform in front of a huge crowd and walking like a model. I have gained six new friendships that will last a lifetime."

Presenting ... "Miss Oakwood 2000"

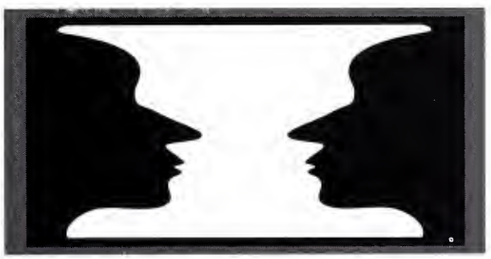

"She Lifted Her Voice and Sang!"

"I tried my best to keep focused, knowing there was much to be done with little time to accomplish it all. In my quietness, I found peace within myself and was able to let go of self and let God take over everything that was before me. I was having a lot o f fun and to me that was important. I went through each segment asking God for strength and remembering the words of my favorite text, Proverbs 3: 5, 6. It was time to select the three finalists, and even to that point I had no thought of advancing to the final round. For anyone who was apart of the audience, my facial expression clearly showed how surprised I was when I was selected. At that point I felt fear creeping in knowing that the question -and -answer segment was the one I feared the most from the very beginning. As the curtains closed allowed the three finalists to gain composure, I gained strength from my new sisters as we prayed and gave each other words of encouragement.

The moment of truth came faster than expected, and whether or not I was ready, it was staring me in the face. As the questions were put before me I honestly had no idea what to reply, but before I had time to doubt myself, I reminded myself from whom my strength comes from, and then I spoke. I knew for sure that God put those words upon my tongue, and from the audience response I could see His people were receptive. Standing between my two sisters awaiting the results, there was still a feeling of uncertainty about the outcome.

Everything seemed to be moving so fast and within a few minutes I had a crown on my head, flowers cradled in my arms and a warm audience sending me cheers. You, my Oakwood family, have been nothing less than wonderful, and I am truly blessed to be representing you. I will continue to be myself, and with my individuality and spirit, I hope to make a positive and powerful impact, not only here on campus, but in the community."

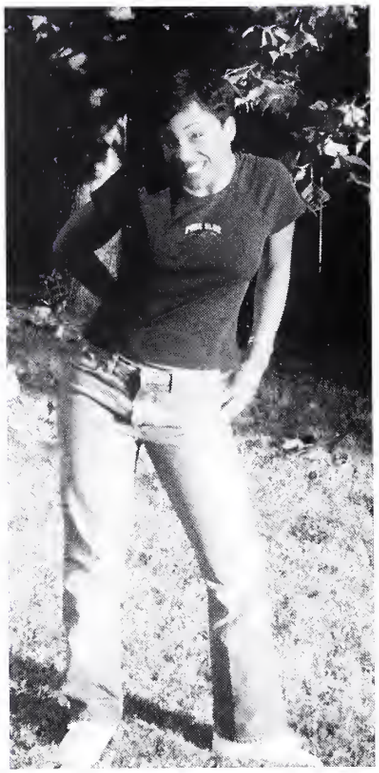

Tyra you better think twice before you pose again.

Watch out Maya Angelou, you've got company.

SOCCER

So let's cheer for dear old Oakwood College, that covers not only the mental and spiritual aspects of education but also the PHYSICAL. like NEVER BEFORE. The Ambassadors have entered into the new millennium with new beginnings and treasured memories. With this, school spirit will NEVER AGAIN be the same!

GO!

FIGHT!

WIN!!

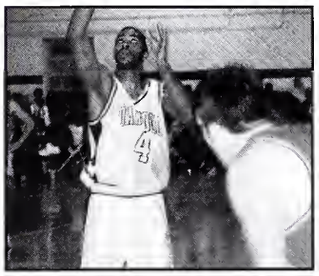

BASKETBALL

TO THE HOOP, YA'LL!

Curtis Blow once talked about basketball in the NBA, but when you get into talking about the basketball happening at Oakwood College, you seem to experience a whole new ball game. Never before has there been a team that started almost nonexisting and ended with success and acknowlegement because of the faith, hard work, and determination of a very wise man by the name of Coach James Roddy. These players have represented dear old OC in places such as Bermuda, Washington State, and Tennessee (just to name a few). Keeping in focus the mental, spirtiual, and physical aspects of education, these Oakwood men have been more than prime examples of what "the school of the prophets" has to offer. Although the Ambassadors for the year of 1999-2000 will be next year, they will never be forgotten!

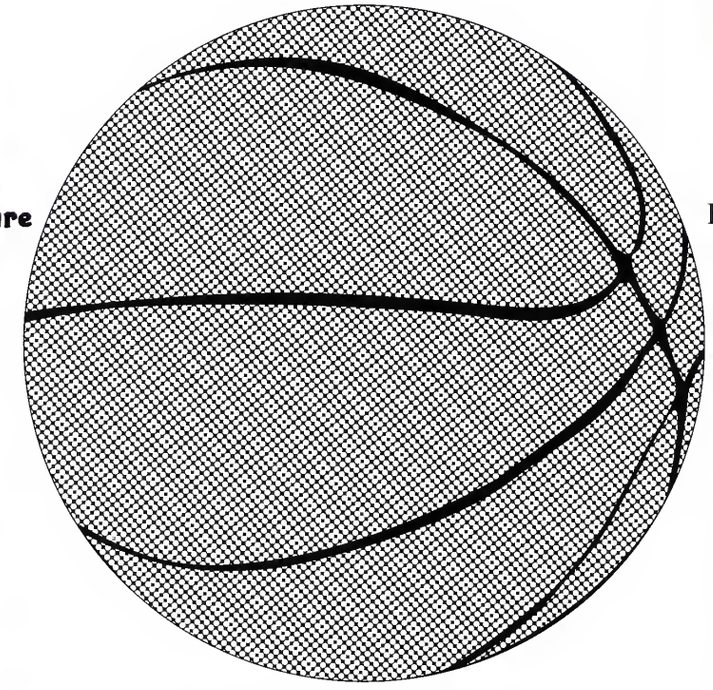

AMBASSADORS BASKETBALL

"Awh man! I forgot to shave"

No pressure, no pressure

Hey, coach, can I go in now, please?

Notice that John is speaking and...

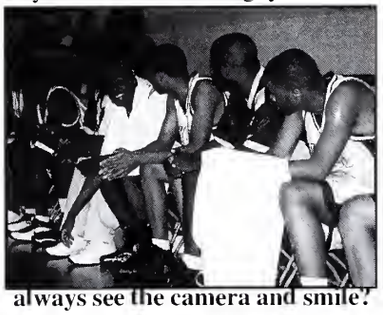

No one's listening!

HIGH FIVE!!

Have you noticed that the guys who ride the bench always see the camera and smile?

THEY'RE PLAYING BASKETBALL...WE LOVE THAT BASKETBALL!

"Hussle!" "Defense!" "Pass the ball!" "Hey, ref, you need glasses!" These are just a few wonderful words you'll hear when you enter into the wonderful world of Lady Ambassadors' basketball. This year the ladies have taken Oakwood College basketball to a whole new level. Never before has our women's basketball team represented dear old OC by participating in tournaments and traveling on a plane to places like Washington State to play Walla Walla College. These ladies truly are demonstrating what will happen when you give a woman a chance. You'll never again question their ability.

1ST ANNUAL SOCCER INVITATIONAL

"Just a second! Oakwood college is not suppose to have a soccer team, are they?" Like never before, the Oakwood College athletic program has increased their capacity by including a new sport...soccer. This year's Ambassadors soccer team was founded by Oakwood College students who came together, formed a team, and presented themselves and their new project to the USM, the result being an unforgettable tournament including neighboring schools that turned out to be a success. The tournament included a massive cheering crowd, players from all over the world, and a victory over the University of Alabama in Huntsville with a score of 8-1. This courageous Ambassador soccer team will never be replaced but, their light will carry on to future generations.

INTRAMURALS

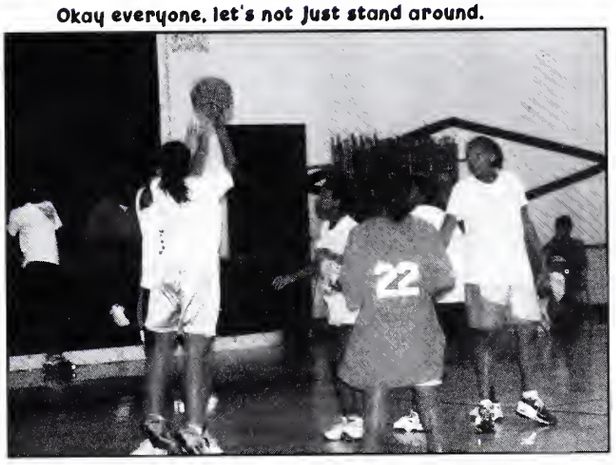

Can You recognize these players. I see some winners here!

The Cali team's cheerleader and "The Roots" coach.

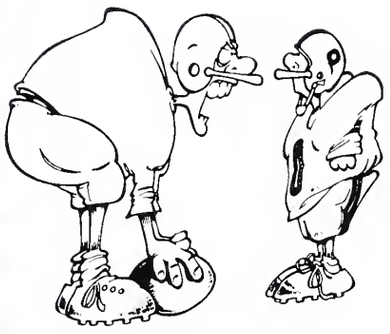

Okay everyone, let's not just stand around.

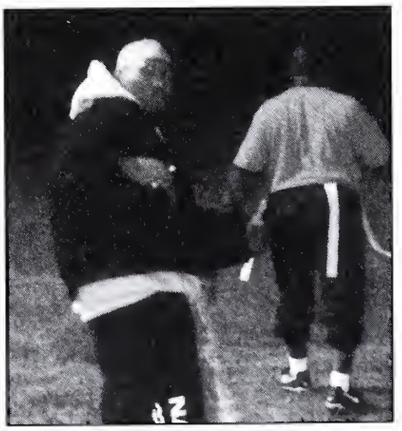

James Kyle...

The All American Quaterback!

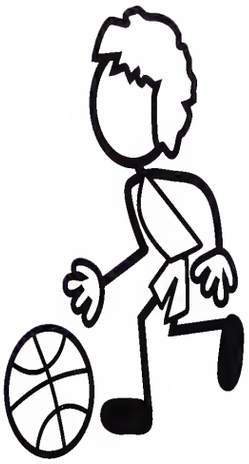

Hey, who is that smooth brother?

Like never before, this years intramural teams have taken sportsmanship, strength, and physical education to a whole new level. Not only was were male athletes but also women athletes. The players on these different teams sacrificed time out of their busy schedules to display teamwork for the common goal of winning. Regardless of the ending results, win or lose, they are all winners. Never again will there be bored Sundays or Wednesday nights (after prayer meeting), as long as there is a game, there is excitement!

Volleyball Intermurals? You'd better believe it!

OLD BONES VS. NEW BONES BASKETBALL CHALLENGE

THE FRESHMAN Versus THE FACULTY

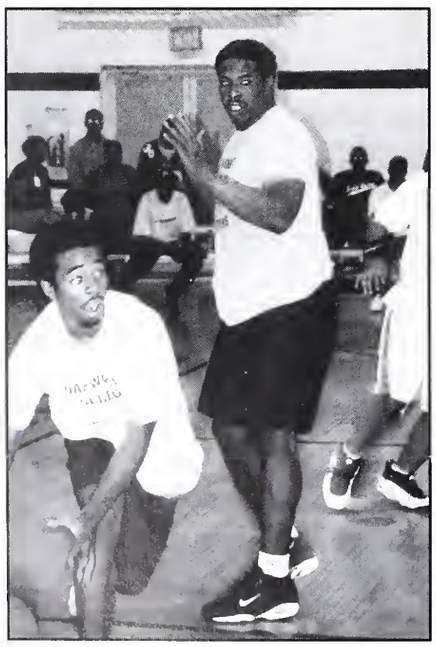

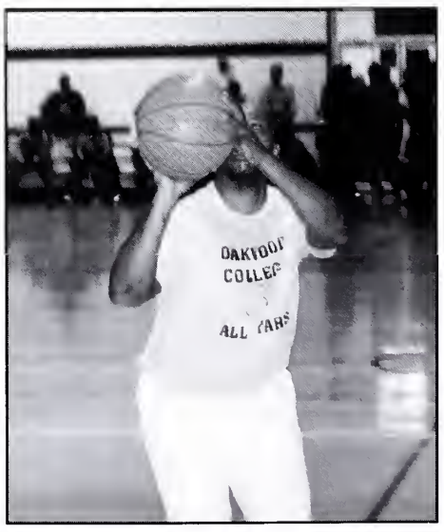

Just a friendly game of basketball!

Excitement in the air (as well as the aroma of Ben-Gay and simalac!) It was like never before! The freshmen of the 1999-2000 school y played a friendly game of basketball against the experienced falculty. Some thought it would be no competition considering that the falculity are entirely too to hang with the full of energy freshmen right? Well The falculity proved to the freshmen that they needed to go back to the playground and practice before the try to play a man/woman's game because,

The faculty WON!

Okay, the first thing you don't want to do is let let them go by you.

John, don't miss those free throws!

BASKETBALL

A prime demonstration of the classic "bench warming".

Lucky number 7 dunks the ball! (Nice!)

WEST

So which side is the best side? This year North, East, South and West freshmen basketball game answered that question like NEVER BEFORE. Both the women and the men represented their territory with pride and determination

EAST

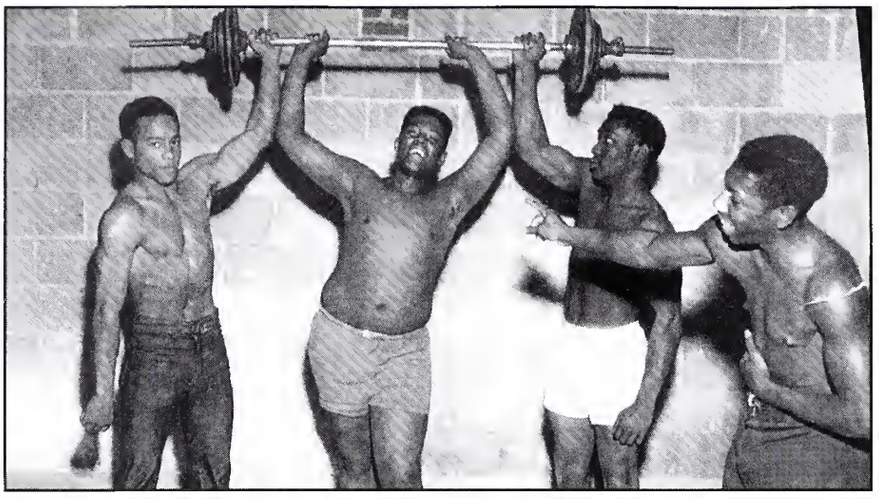

Okay, somebody get OPEN!

SOUTH

PLAY TIME

Can you reconize these people? Daddy, is that you?

Class, what is the proper attire to play volleyball?

Jeanine replies, "hot mamma pants, boots and a sweater".

The Ref decided to be in the picture.

THANKS!!

See how excited the crowd is! Well, some of them.

The CALIE team huddles up...

O.C's Cheer Squad. Well, not quite.

Whether they are in the stands, on the court, or on the field, the Ambassadors all displayed the physical aspect of education in the sports arena. The reason for participation may be for the love of the game, to attract the opposite sex, to get into shape or to do something to occupy time. Whatever the reason, these high -spirited Ambassadors have done it with heart like NEVER BEFORE. Although the teams and players will be replaced with others in the future, the memories (and results) will NEVER AGAIN have a replay , but instead carry a legacy.

AMBASSADORS

Somebody help me, help me please!

They're not ready for us!

The home crowd is so spirited!

THIS IS HOW WE DO IT!!

The final Calie vs. Canada score.

Hey, pass it to me, I'm open!

Let's Get. . .

Organized

They say birds of a feather flock together. Undeniably, there is something deep within human nature that drives one to seek others with similar interests or tastes. Songbirds will go out and find other songbirds to mix melodious harmonies with. A budding actor or actress will likewise look for fellow thespians with whom they can exchange the lines of an innovative skit or play. Those with similar majors like to convene together to study or to discuss what options are available in the field which they are pursuing. Writers will find other writers, book worms will find other bookworms, and so on. Hence organizations are formed that provide people an with outlet to join with like minds. Oakwood has its fair share of these assemblies. Never before has there been such a combination of groups and clubs. Each member has an unique personality which he or she contributes to the whole to make the caucus one of a kind. Never again will our school see such a blending. So, without any further ado, here they are for your enjoyment. . . Oakwood's own fair-feathered group of clubs and organizations.

United Student Movement

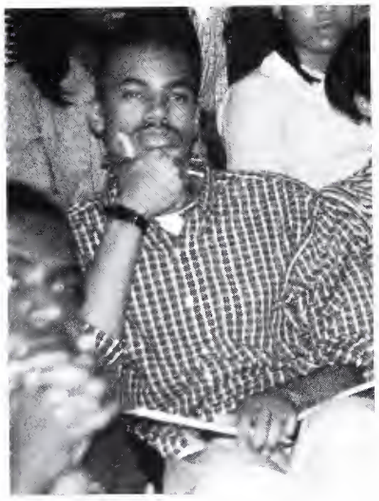

There is no denying it. The USM Executive Cabinent is definitely one of the hardest working entities on this campus. In addition to planning social events, academic bowls, religious activities, regular newspaper publications, and sports activities, each member of this distinguished group is an ordinary student, just like the rest of us, battling with tests, multiple-page papers, and group presentations. The USM Senate also puts in long hard hours, making sure that the concerns of their constituents are voiced to administrative officers, cafeteria supervisors, and the USM officers as well. To this diligent bunch of individuals who tirelessly see to it that our school experience goes as smoothly as possible, we salute you!

Aeolians and College Choir

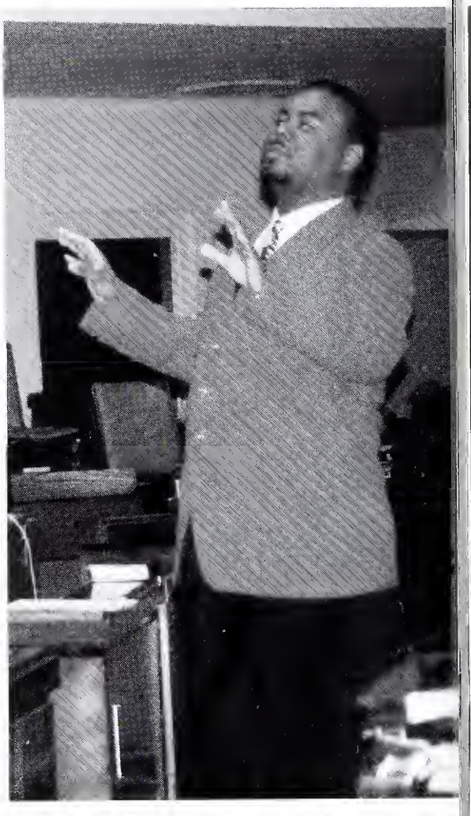

"Aeolians. . .The very name commands your attention. It has been said that if mortal man can sound like this, then, oh, how must the angels sound. It is our soul desire to lift up our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This fact reverberates in our songs of praise."

-Jerod Holloway, Aeolians President

"I look foward to going to choir. The comaraderie with other members, the satisfaction of accomplishment, and the gratification of those who are blessed by us in song all keep us coming back to this rewarding ministry."

Just a note...

As I had at my high school graduation, I've once again been afforded the opportunity to wax eloquently. However, those of you who attended know what happened; I preached. When I reflect on how I got over, I can't help but praise the Name. This year has truly been a turning point in my life for a variety of reasons, but working on the yearbook was a critical factor. I learned a lot about the way I managae time, stress, people, deadlines, money, crisies, papers due, and authority. I also learned that patience is a virtue, sleep is my favorite pastime, everyone is a resource for information, Y2k is a just beginning, spelling is critical, deadlines are not your worst nightmare, everyone wants to be in the yearbook, computers get tired too, suggestions are really demands, humor eases tension, laughter is the best medicine, Mr. Harbin and Ms. Hyman were always there, friends are priceless, prayer changes things and Jesus really cares about the Acorn.

This was worth every bump along the seemingly endless road of this school year. I hope that you can appreciate the time and effort put into producing this book We proud of it! Thank you, Byron Philips, for your expertise and patience through this project. Mr. Pullins thank you for all those mug shots you took despite not feeling well some days; God Bless you. We couldn't have done this without you. These results would not have been possible without extra special people who were dedicated to its cause: Olakemi Sobamekin, Wumi Sobamekin, Tiffany Taylor, John Michael Johnson, Tara Carmen, Triciana Loftman, Juleun Johnson, Andrea Gilkey, Belina Buisson, Diana Mosley, Jennifer Gray, and Pendeza Green.. Special thanks to Robert Walker and Enoch Baker for helping me keep my wig on when I wanted to deconstruct the computer. Words fail to convey my love to those who kept me going ; so thank you, Kim, Nicole, my big sister Trish, Monique, Joelle and my second mother Louis Belgrave. Mommy and Daddy, thank you for your daily powerful prayers that penetrated God's throne room.

Congratulations seniors: the fun is just beginning(yeah, right). It won't be long juniors, those of you on the four year plan. Sophomores, step up and take your place. Freshmen hang in there, just three more years. No one knows how much longer this world will go on, and truthfully, it doesn't matter. What matters is that we have a blessed assurance of salvation in the one thing that remains constant while people and situations change: God's Word. My encouragement to you, Oakwood woman or man, is to live for the present like never before, and live for the future like never again.

Living in Anctipation,

Lavinia Baxter

"I will never forget my time at Oakwood. Each one of you taught me as much about myself and about Christ as you did about yourselves, and for that I am forever indebted to you. NAPS , I'll love you always. One semester was simply to short,but the memories are being treasured. Pray that my ministry to others is as colored with life as yours has been to me."

-Micheal Messervy

"My compatriates at Oakwood College made me a more complete, complex and caring person."

-Loran Haughsted

I enjoyed getting acquainted with many of Oakwood's cool students. I will miss seeing you'll. Come see me sometime.

-George Fuller

OAKWOOD COLLEGE
GETS DEEP

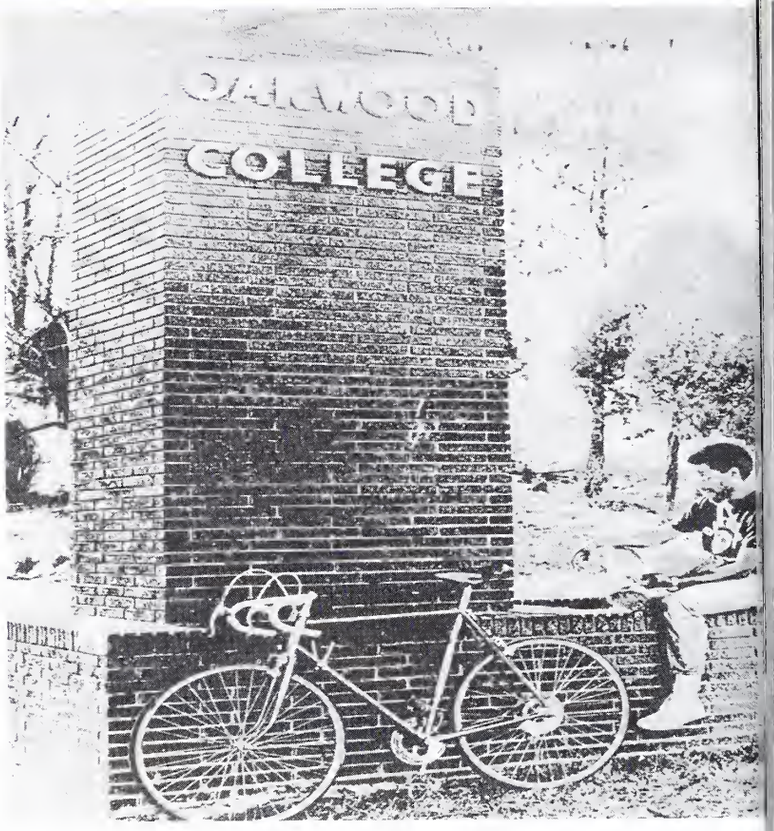

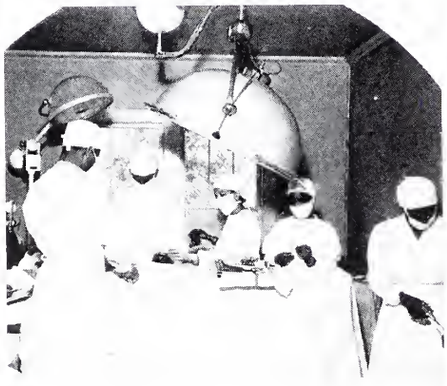

The Diversity Education Exchange Program allowed seven students from Southern University, to exchange places with seven Oakwoodites for the fall semester, becoming the second group to participate in the PROGRAM. George Fuller, Amberly Howe, Lora , Loran Haugsted, David Collins, Micheal Messervy, and David Dickerson left undeniable marks on our lives and on this campus. It is safe to say that they are all now "seasoned" Oakwoodites. The Southern crew became a part of our campus family involving themselves in everything: Dynamic Praise, the Aeolians, NAPS, Public Relations, the Science Club, and other organizations. We have all benefited as a result of this program. We have grown together spiritually as well as academically, and we are forever changed. It has been a deep experience, one we will never forget.

Who would have imagined that a former slave plantation could metamorphose into a university-status bound institution with a graduating class of over 300 future physicians, lawyers, ministers, business professionals . . .the list goes on and on. Over the past ten decades the little fledgling school has stretched its wings to transform into the makings of an eagle educational facility, which still continues to grow and reach new heights.

While Oakwood is writing a new history for itself, will we ever relive the moments that has made this school what it is today? Well, the answer to that question is . . .

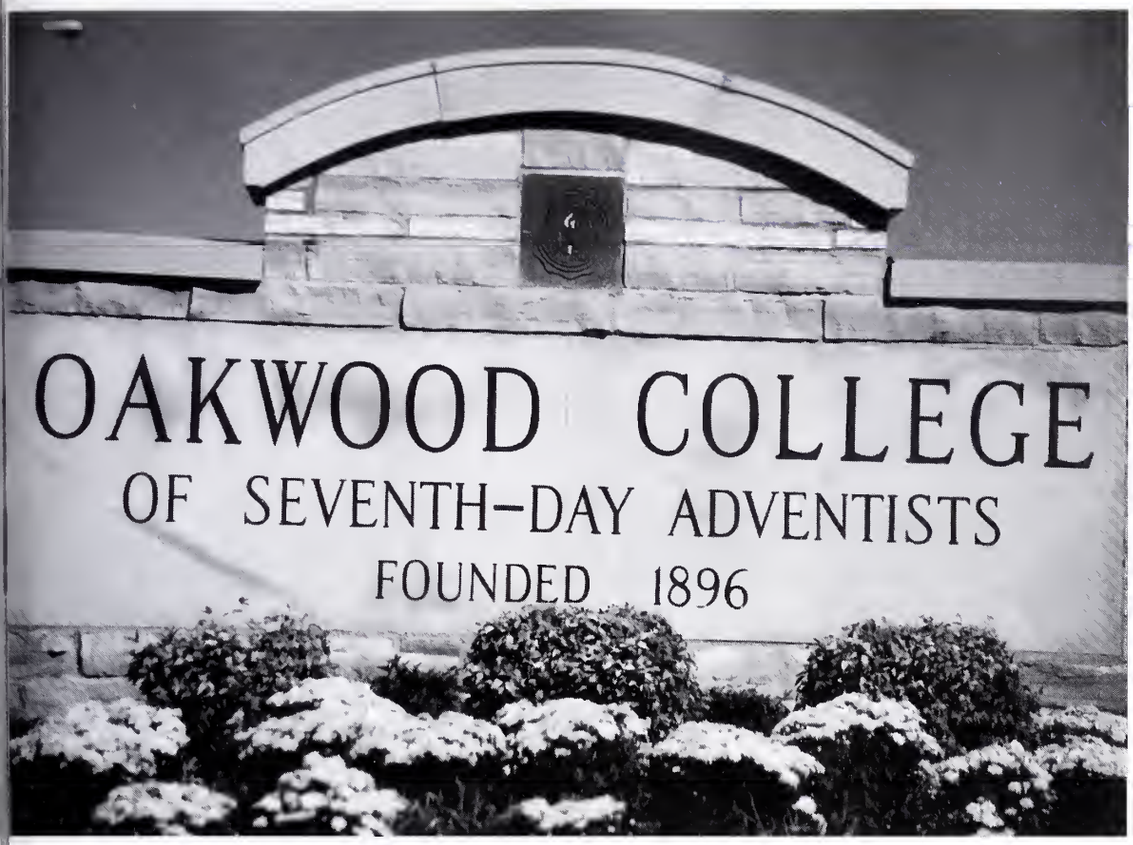

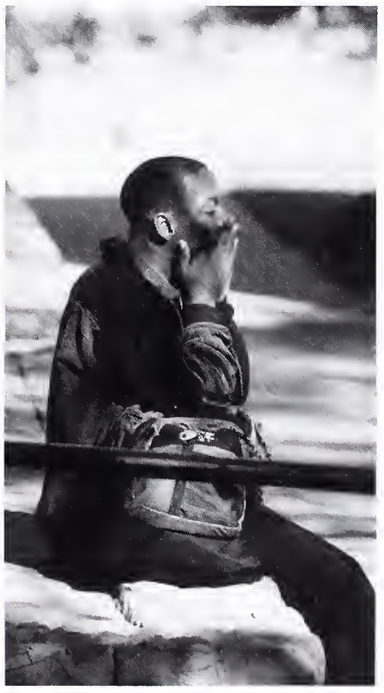

. . . Never Again.

1896-1929

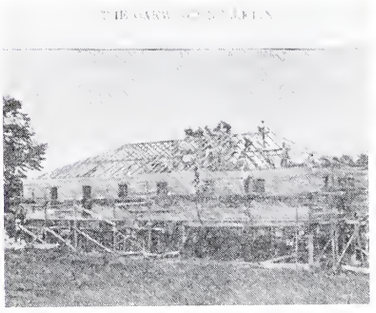

Inadequate facilities, shortage of necessary supplies . . .yes, the early forerunners of Oakwood had it rough at times. However, they made the best of what they had and during this time Oakwood continued to prosper, growing from Oakwood Technical School into Oakwood Junior College.

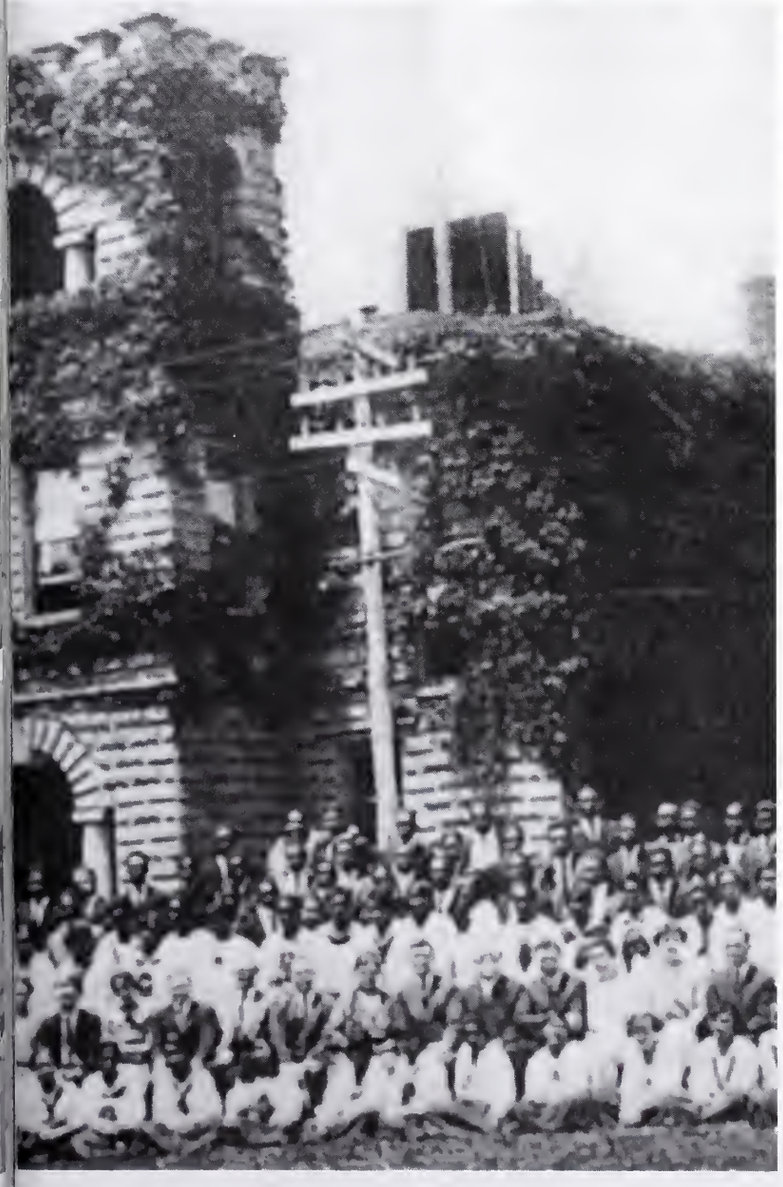

1930-1939

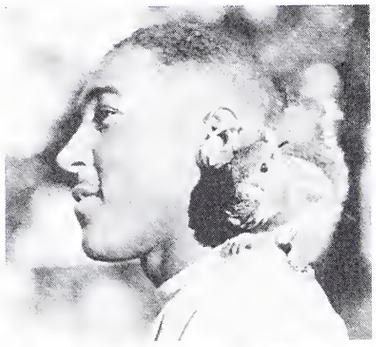

Fed up with some of the practices of the college that they deemed ineffective and, on some occasions, outright prejudiced, the students of Oakwood opened the 1930s with a strike. Matters eventually were resolved, and, as an answer to some of the concerns, J.L Moran was installed as Oakwood's first black president.. This generation also gave birth to the first student newspaper and the official school colors of blue and gold.

1940-1949

A LOVELY WAY TO SPEND THE EVENI
DERRICK CHANDLER AND FLORENCE KI

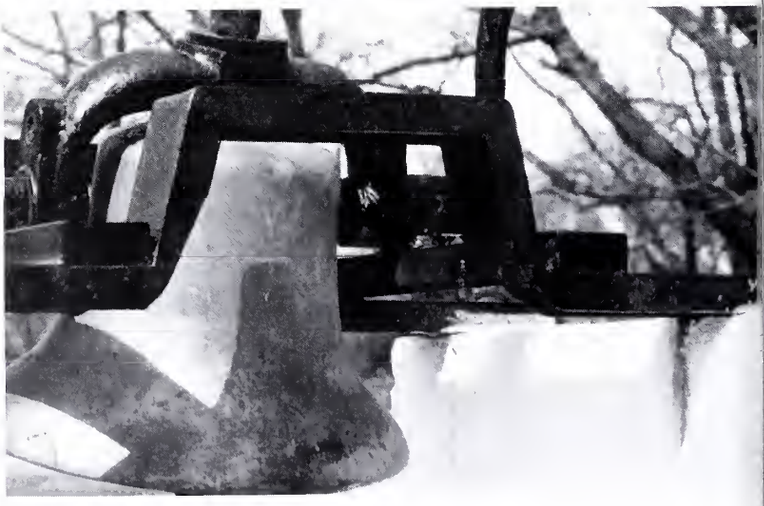

The 1940s brought Oakwood the designation of a senior college and the very first of the baccalaureate degrees were conferred in 1945. It was also in this time that the very first issue of the yearbook, the Acorn, was published.

1950-1959

With the 1950s ushering in Oakwood's 60th anniversary, the school continued to make new strides, receiving its accreditation by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

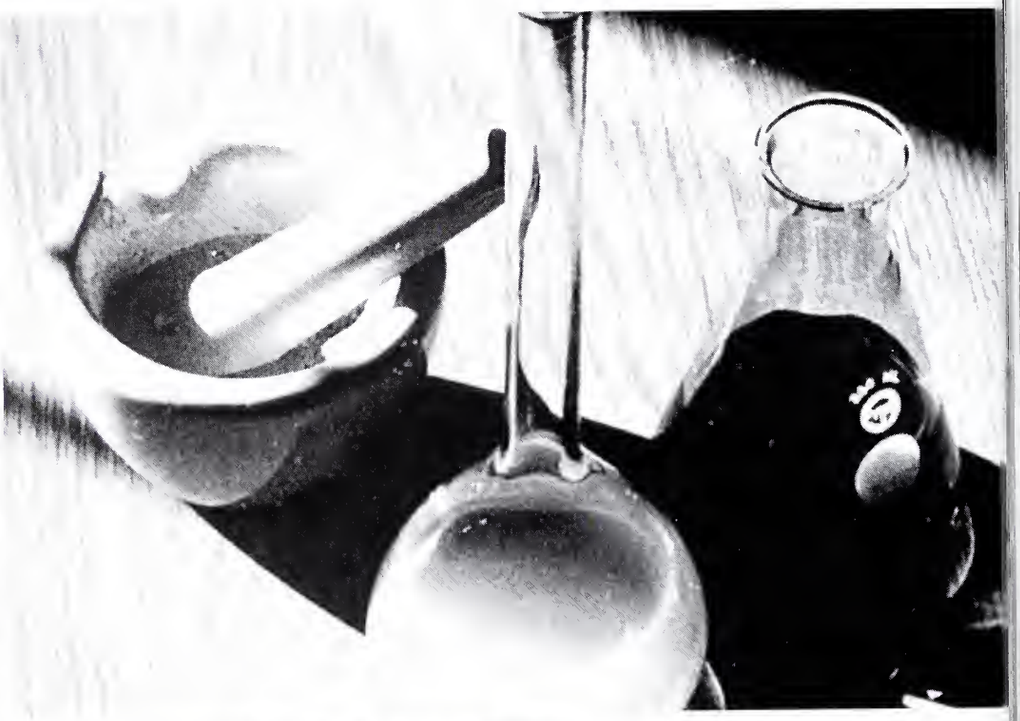

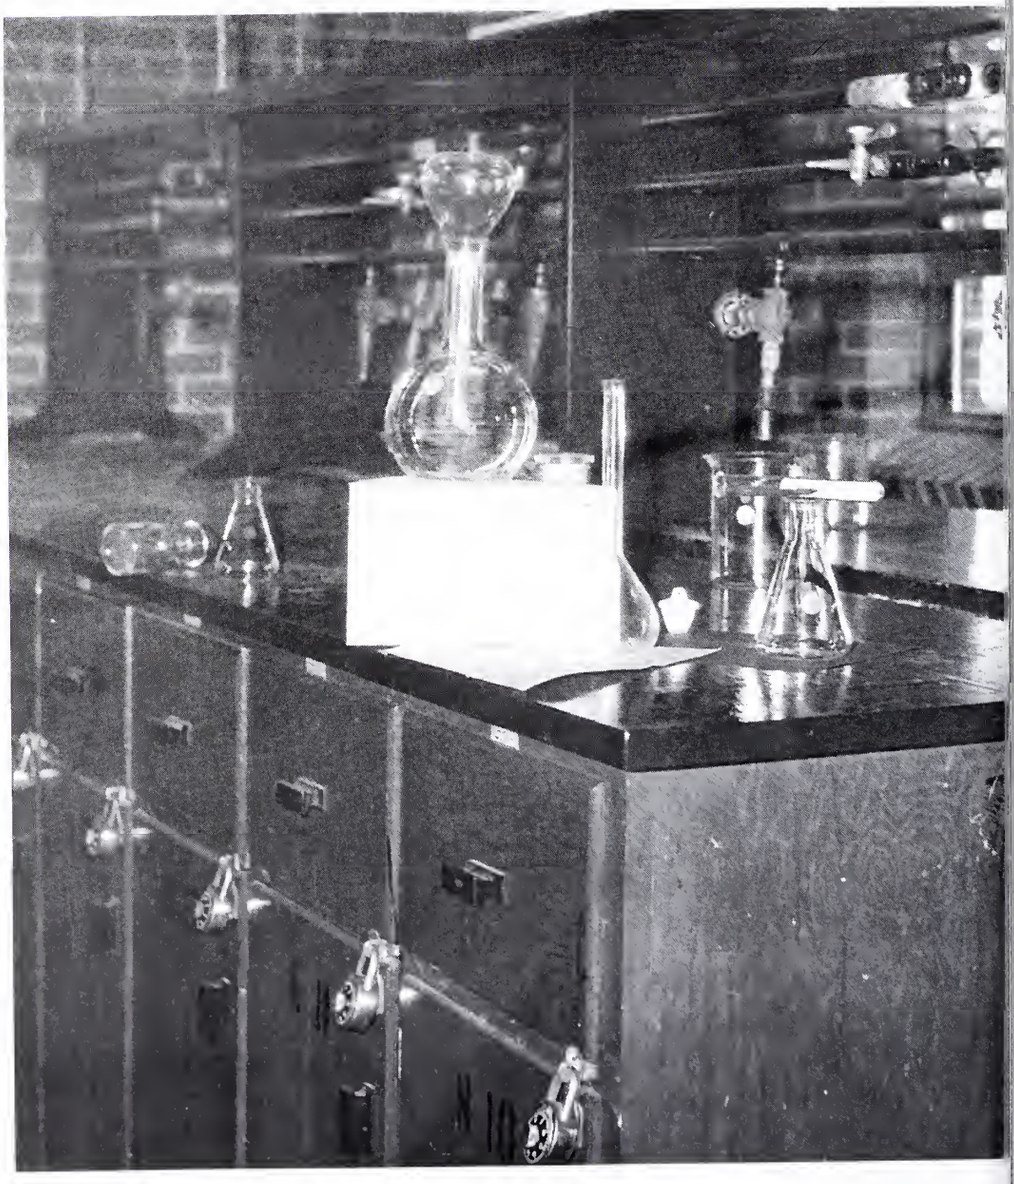

1960-1969

The heart of the civil rights movement surrounded Oakwood during the 1960s. In the meantime, Oakwood was expanding more and more. The institution began its union with UNCF in this decade.

1970-1979

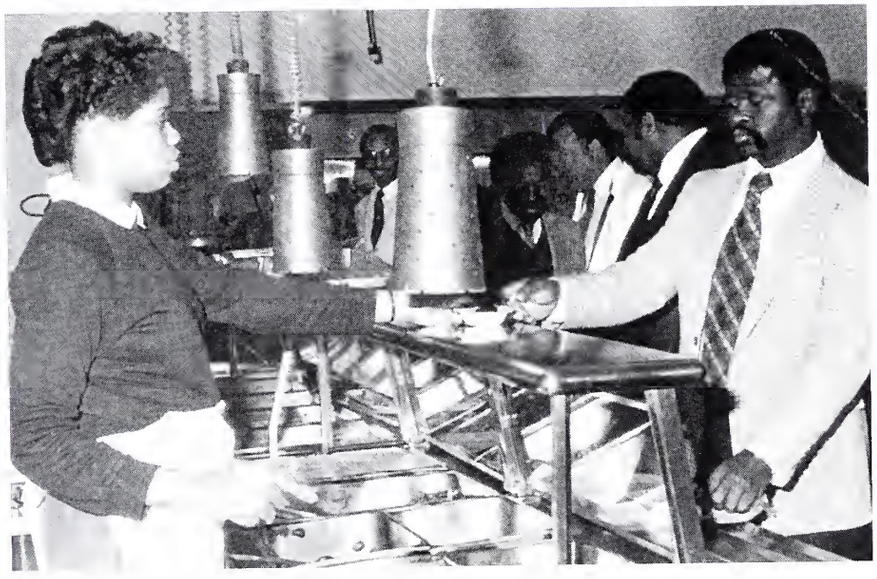

Afros, bell-bottoms, dashikis . . .yes, these things could be seen in abundance around Oakwood during the 70s. The building of the Oakwood College Church was also completed, with Elder Eric C. Ward presiding as senior pastor, and WOCG went on the air as "the light of the Tennessee Valley' for the first time.

1980-1989

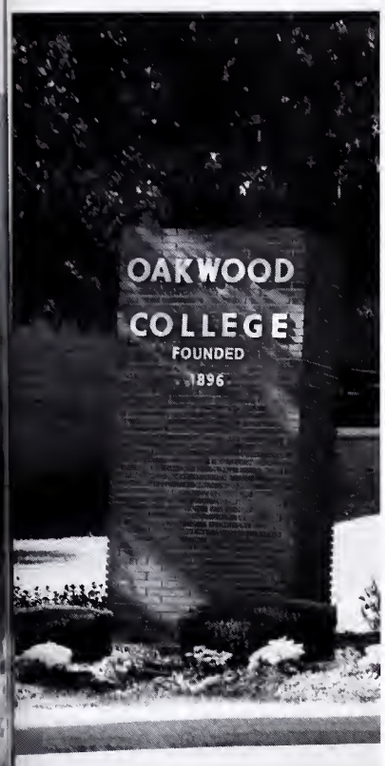

"Precious memories, how they linger . . ." In the heyday of Alma "Ma' Blackmon's Aeolians, a "Special Blend' (yes, we are coining the name of Mervyn Warren, Mark Kibble, Alvin Chea, and Claude McKnight's original group) of Oakwood's musical talent hit an all-time high in the 80s. Many of the various choirs began regular touring, and a variety of students began to take seriously going into music as a professional career.

1990-1999

"The Power Generation." On the brink of a new millenium, the 90s were an age where Oakwood began to reach new horizons. The school celebrated its centennial anniversary. Also, various technological advances were made, such as the establishment of an offical general school computer lab with internet access and an e-mail system for faculty and students. Computers became more plentiful on campus than ever before.

What is in store for the school of the prophets this next millenium? Only time will tell, but since the beginning, God has been with this school, bringing it through turbulent times as well times of prosperity, and, without a doubt, God will continue to lead Oakwood down the road it needs to take in the future. So, in closing, here we present to you Oakwood 2000 in its entirety . . . never before, never again.

Food Fest

On Saturday, February 19, 2000, the International Food Fest was held, to the delight of many Oakwood College students. Everyone knows that wherever free food is, you are bound to have a good time. Organized by Ms. Theresa Allen and the United Student Movement's (USM) social Vice President, Orlando Jobson, it was truly a memorable time. The various types of food served included: Indian, Carribean, Mexican, Oriental, Italian, and American cuisine. The very entertaining group Jaballa originally from Nigeria, sang, danced, and flexed their muscles for the crowd. A good time was had by all.

Below: The eat is on! No sooner than the aroma hits the air, the ever -prese question arises: "How many may I have?"

Above: Music, munchies, and memories, what more is there to the college life?

Right: Caught with his hand in the cookie jar! More like in the face, Touissant Williams is not ashamed at his appetite.
